The chalet's embrace exudes warmth, happiness, and cosy anticipation of evenings with the log burner. But that's just the beginning! Step onto the deck to find a soothing hot tub while skilled skiers can thrill with off-piste adventures to the forest-fronted doorstep. A perfect finale to any day! Even beginners need only walk a mere two hundred meters to access the piste and lift.

Nestled five minutes from the village centre, Chalet Bernadette offers five opulent bedroom suites. Tucked in La Tania's forested wonderland, it's steps away from the piste, surrounded by snow and breathtaking panoramas. A paradise for large families or friends seeking comfort and elegance.

La Tania, nestled between Courchevel and Meribel, is a postcard-perfect ski village offering access to the expansive Three Valleys ski area. Bars, eateries, shops, and educational facilities abound. The village centre, designed traffic-free for the 1992 Winter Olympics, is perfect for families. A quick gondola ride reveals the ski area's 600 kilometres of slopes - 183 blue/green, 119 red, and 33 black runs, all against a snow-capped backdrop. Beyond skiing, enjoy sledging, night skiing, hiking, snowshoeing, cross-country skiing, and paragliding. As the snow melts, the mountains offer biking, trekking, tennis, clay pigeon shooting, swimming, and paragliding. Courchevel and Meribel's vibrant centres are a short drive away.

On the lower floor, three twin bedrooms with en-suite showers await, along with a separate annexe with a double bedroom. Rich wood and luxurious linens adorn each room. Ascending to the upper level, a twin-bedroom suite and inviting living spaces unfold. A captivating wooden-beamed ceiling sets the scene, where carved sofas and a log-burning stove provide comfort. The dining area hosts hearty meals, while doors open to a balcony with stunning views.
