Location & Local Information

Locations don't come more exclusive or high-end than Sotogrande, a resort featuring incredible landscapes, immaculate golf courses, a marina, and over 12km of beaches complete with restaurants, beach bars and shops. An annual polo event is held here every August at The Santa Maria Polo Club, attracting rich and famous visitors from all over the world, and during the summer months, international golf tournaments are often played in the region, making this resort a real draw for sports enthusiasts. Sotogrande is also home to fantastic beach clubs with excellent tourist facilities, including bars and restaurants, children's play areas, and a range of watersports to try out, such as sailing and windsurfing.

The resort is situated in the city of Cadiz, an area with a buzzing, lively vibe featuring charming cobbled streets and characterful tapas bars on almost every corner. The city is one of the oldest in Western Europe, founded over 3,000 years ago, and once one of Europe's most important ports, with trading links to America.

Today, the city is popular with tourists who come here for its beautiful beaches, tree-lined plazas and sensational views. The historical centre of the city is home to the stunning cathedral, built in both Baroque and Neoclassical styles. Oliver recommends climbing up the bell tower during your visit to enjoy amazing views of the city and port. This traditional Spanish city has plenty to offer those keen to try some of the local delicacies, and Mercado Central features almost 60 stalls selling fresh fruits and vegetables, fresh seafood, and everything in between - foodies will be in their element here! If you choose to dine out rather than buy produce to cook back at the villa, you'll be spoilt for choice when it comes to restaurants, with many in the city serving up the traditional fare and offering tried-and-tested menus that have been delighting tourists and locals alike for over 50 years.

During your visit to the city, be sure to spend some time at one of the most charming urban beaches you'll ever encounter, Playa de la Caleta - which James Bond fans might recognise from the film Die Another Day.

What we love

- Villa Gravedad is situated on an exclusive resort along the Costa de la Luz, offering guests free access to a private beach and clubhouse and a stunning nature reserve!
- We love the grand and spacious interior here at Villa Gravedad - you certainly won't be getting under each other's feet during your stay!
- What's more luxurious than the villa's private infinity pool and secluded gardens

What you should know...

- The private pool is accessible via stainless steel ladder, which might make it difficult for younger children to get in and out of the water unaided
- Please make sure to keep an eye on the kids whilst they are outside, due to the possibility of falling from the terrace
- The villa is modern throughout, so it might not be suitable for those who enjoy a more rustic, traditional feel
