Location & Local Information

La Reserva Sotogrande is a high-end and exclusive resort featuring incredible landscapes, immaculate golf courses, a marina, and over 12km of beaches, complete with restaurants, beach bars and shops. Guests staying at Villa Horoscopo can enjoy all that this luxurious complex has to offer, including access to a private beach and clubhouse and the stunning surrounding nature reserve. Every August, an annual polo event is held at The Santa Maria Polo Club, and during the summer months, international golf tournaments are often played here, making this resort a real draw for sports enthusiasts. Sotogrande is also home to world-renowned beach clubs, all featuring excellent tourist facilities that include bars and restaurants, children's play areas, and a range of watersports to try out, including sailing and windsurfing.

Sotogrande was established in 1962 by the American entrepreneur Joseph McMicking. He bought five farms on both sides of the Guadiaro River, where it flows into the Mediterranean, with the dream of turning it into one of Europe's leading luxury leisure and residential destinations. Today, it boasts many exclusive properties covering a huge area bordered by the villages of Torreguadiaro and Guadiaro to the north. Sotogrande is also known as 'the little Venice of the Mediterranean' for its attractive tree-lined canals and bridges. There are hundreds of berths in the stunning marina, together with excellent restaurants, cafes, shops, professional services and watersports facilities.

What we love

- We love the incredible views from the villa, looking out over the golf course and the Mediterranean Sea!
- Of course, one of the main highlights of Villa Horosocopo is that stunning infinity pool! You could spend all day there!
- Downstairs, guests can stay fit with the rowing and weights machines on offer
- This property is very spacious, which is evidenced by the large living room with its high ceilings - perfect for enjoying your time together as a family

What you should know...

- With the unfenced pool and some possible drops, we recommend this property for older children, or for younger children to always be supervised outside
- The villa is modern throughout, so it might not be suitable for those who enjoy a more rustic, traditional feel
