Location & Local Information

Situated in the heart of Tuscany, Florence is a city steeped in ancient history dating back to the Roman era. Its stunning Renaissance architecture, world-class art, and romantic allure have earned it a reputation as the cultural capital of Italy. Positioned in a central location, Apartment Bernini is within easy walking distance of many of the city's top attractions and is well-connected by public transport.

Explore the city's narrow, winding streets and uncover hidden gems at every turn. Admire the impressive Duomo, the city's most iconic landmark, which stands tall over the historic centre. Cross the ancient Ponte Vecchio, a medieval bridge spanning the Arno River, and take in breathtaking views of the city from the riverbanks.

Florence is home to a wealth of museums and galleries displaying the work of some of the world's most influential artists. The Uffizi Gallery features masterpieces by renowned artists like Botticelli, Michelangelo, and Leonardo da Vinci. The Pitti Palace is a grand Renaissance palace filled with beautiful art and luxurious furnishings.

In addition to its rich artistic heritage, Florence is renowned for its delicious cuisine. Savour traditional Tuscan dishes such as ribollita, pappa al pomodoro, and bistecca alla Fiorentina with a glass of locally produced Chianti. Visit bustling markets like Mercato Centrale or Sant'Amrogio to sample fresh produce, cheese, and meats.

Florence hosts numerous festivals and celebrations throughout the year. Witness the spectacle of the historical football match, Calcio Storico, held in Piazza Santa Croce each June. Celebrate the arrival of spring with the explosion of colours and scents at the annual Iris Garden Festival in May.

Whether you're a history buff, an art lover, a foodie, or just looking for romantic charm, Florence is a city that will capture your heart and leave you enchanted.
