Location & Local Information

Florence is an enchanting city that captivates visitors with its rich cultural heritage and magnificent Renaissance architecture, making it an ideal destination for an unforgettable getaway.

Apartment Giotto, located in the heart of the city, provides an excellent base for exploring this charming city, with easy access to public transportation and many top attractions within walking distance. You can stroll through the narrow streets of the historic centre and discover hidden gems at every turn. The iconic Duomo dominates the city's skyline, and walking across the ancient Ponte Vecchio provides stunning views of the city from the riverbanks.

Art enthusiasts will find paradise in Florence, with the world's most significant art displayed in many museums and galleries. A visit to the Uffizi Gallery, home to masterpieces by renowned artists like Botticelli, Michelangelo, and Leonardo da Vinci, is a must-see. Another highlight is the grand Renaissance Pitti Palace, filled with beautiful art and luxurious furnishings.

Florence is also renowned for its cuisine, with traditional Tuscan dishes like ribollita, pappa al pomodoro, and bistecca alla Fiorentina, accompanied by a glass of locally produced Chianti. The bustling markets like Mercato Centrale or Sant'Ambrogio offer a true culinary adventure with fresh produce, cheese, and meats.

The city of Florence loves to celebrate, with a wide range of events happening year-round. The historical football match, Calcio Storico, held in Piazza Santa Croce every June, is a must-see. The annual Iris Garden Festival in May celebrates the arrival of spring with an explosion of colours and scents.

Whether you're a history buff, an art lover, a foodie, or seeking some romantic charm, Florence is a city that will capture your heart and leave you enchanted.
