Meandering pathways lead guests through the verdant garden to a fragrant lavender field overlooked by a yoga platform, where you can spend blue-sky mornings stretching as you take in the serene views. The estate also features three rolling olive groves with over one hundred and twenty mature trees, an organic chicken coop and a field where sheep and goats reside. With the shimmering turquoise waters of the Adriatic Sea stretching out over the horizon, the Villa's estate offers a truly rejuvenating holiday setting that encapsulates the unique beauty of Brač.
