

Casa Mura

Region: Puglia Sleeps: 4 - 6

Overview

Ideally located on one of the oldest streets of the enchanting town of Ostuni, in the heart of Italy's "heel", Casa Mura occupies a remarkable 18th-century building. This unique holiday home encompasses two buildings, with a suspended room gracefully bridging the gap between the facades.

Casa Mura is a comfortable yet elegant flat boasting two bedrooms across two levels and two terraces offering breathtaking coastline views. With a maximum occupancy of six guests, this residence exudes character and charm.

The flat is arranged across two levels, with the entrance leading to a living room studio located within the arch connecting the historic buildings on either side. This area boasts two panoramic windows overlooking the picturesque alley and a comfortable sofa bed for additional sleeping arrangements. The arch serves as a transitional space, connecting the entrance to the bedroom with an accompanying bathroom.

On the upper level, guests will find a spacious double bedroom with an ensuite bathroom and a double-sided fireplace, adding a touch of warmth and ambiance. The generous living room is adorned with cosy sofas, while the well-appointed kitchen features a skylight that fills the space with natural light throughout the day. Adjacent to the kitchen is a charming and airy dining room, creating the perfect setting for shared meals and memorable moments. From this level, guests can access two terraces with sensational views boasting comfortable armchairs, a sofa, sunshades, and a charming round wrought-iron table.

Casa Mura enjoys a prime location in the heart of Ostuni, nestled in Puglia, a southern region forming the heel of Italy's "boot". Several places are nearby for essentials, and the historic and alluring towns of Carovigno and Fasano are just a few kilometres away. The shimmering sea is easily accessible within a short distance, and Brindisi airport is conveniently located only 25 minutes away.

Location & Local Information

Casa Mura boasts an idyllic location in the heart of Ostuni, renowned as 'The White City' for its mesmerising whitewashed buildings. Explore its historical centre, characterised by whitewashed buildings, winding streets, and charming squares. Visit the impressive Ostuni Cathedral, stroll along the ancient city walls, and admire panoramic views of the surrounding countryside.

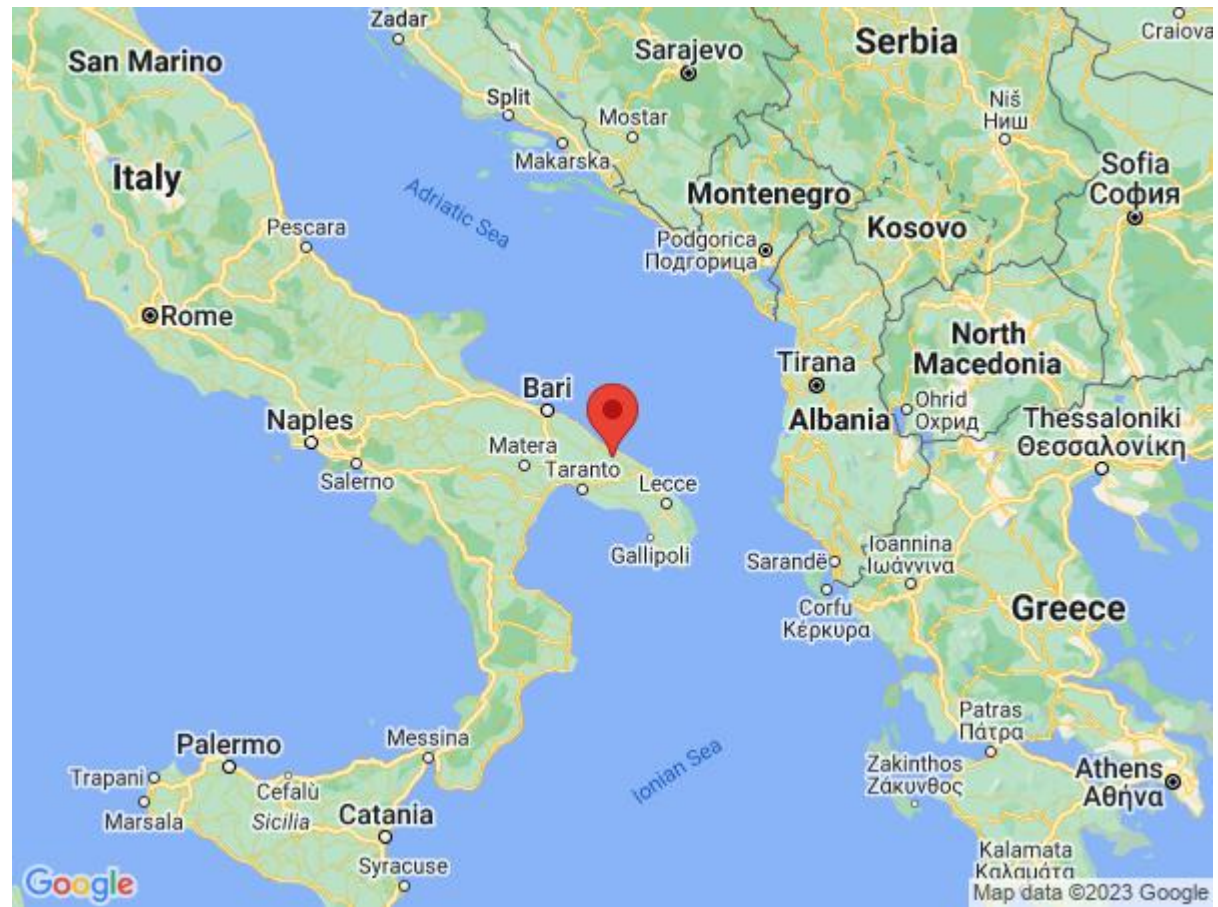

Just a short distance away, you'll find the enchanting town of Alberobello, famous for its unique trulli houses. These traditional Apulian stone dwellings with cone-shaped roofs are a UNESCO World Heritage site and offer a glimpse into the region's rich cultural heritage. Stroll through the narrow streets of the Rione Monti district to admire the trulli and immerse yourself in the charming atmosphere.

Visit Polignano a Mare (48km), a picturesque coastal town perched on dramatic cliffs overlooking the Adriatic Sea. Stroll through its narrow alleys, visit the charming Piazza dell'Orologio, and enjoy breathtaking views from the panoramic terraces. Don't miss the famous beach of Lama Monachile, nestled between cliffs and crystal-clear waters.

Another charming town nearby, Cisternino (16km), boasts a well-preserved historic centre with narrow streets, whitewashed buildings, and a vibrant atmosphere. Explore its picturesque alleys, visit the Church of San Nicola, and savour the local cuisine at traditional trattorias.

Discover the stunning underground world of Castellana Grotte (53km), home to a vast network of caves and caverns. Embark on a guided tour to explore the intricate formations, including stalactites, stalagmites, and underground lakes. The highlight of the visit is the Grotta Bianca (White Cave), renowned for its dazzling white calcite formations.

Enjoy sunbathing and swimming at popular seaside destinations such as Torre Canne, Torre Pozzella, or Torre Guaceto Nature Reserve, known for its pristine beaches and protected marine ecosystem. Lido Morelli is a popular beach destination known for its dazzling waters and soft sandy shores; it's well-equipped with facilities, including sun beds, umbrellas, and beach bars, providing a comfortable setting for a day by the sea. Pilone Beach is a charming stretch of coastline characterised by its rocky cliffs and clear turquoise waters. It offers a more secluded atmosphere and is ideal for those seeking tranquillity and natural beauty.
