Location & Local Information

Pollensa Mortitxet Lux sits in the glorious rural countryside outside of Pollensa. It is peaceful and serene, yet it is within easy reach of bustling tourist resorts with fantastic entertainment and cuisine. Guests also enjoy exploring the island's majestic mountains, sleepy, charming villages and its famous caves.

Pollensa and Puerta Pollensa are a short drive away. Pollensa is an attractive ancient walled town with stunning architecture, modern art galleries, fabulous boutiques, chic, gastronomic restaurants and a lively market. Puerto Pollensa is wonderful with its dazzling white sand and shallow, warm water. Further, Formentor is spectacular and worth the bumpy drive.

. Alcudia Old Town is wonderfully atmospheric for an evening out. It is very romantic with narrow cobbled streets, Romeo and Juliet balconies, authentic cafes, unique boutiques, fabulous fine dining and traditional restaurants, vibrant tapas bars and a superb open-air market. Alcudia's Roman ruins and museum sit just outside the walls and are very interesting. Alcudia Old Town hosts many cultural events, including traditional fiestas and classical music festivals. Visitors can walk around the entire perimeter of the town's medieval walls, either on the inside on the Cami de Ronde route or the outside, using what has now become a delightful garden walk. You can enjoy wonderful panoramic views of the Bay of Pollensa from the top of the walls.

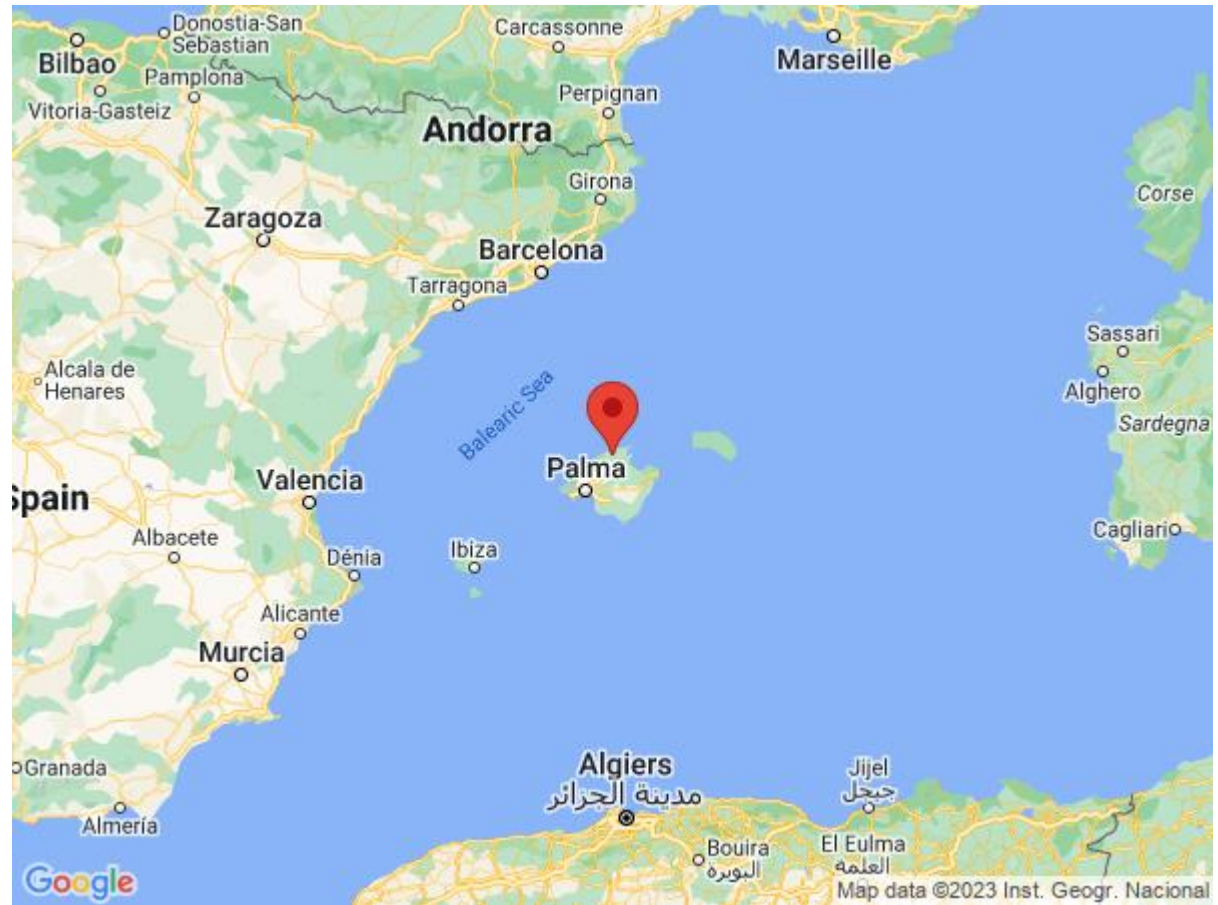

There are several vineyards within easy reach where you can taste some delicious wines. These include the excellent Bodegas Can Vidalet at Pollensa, Bodega Butxet and the Mortitx winery, hidden off a winding road between Pollensa and Lluc. It is worth navigating the hairpin bends of the Tramuntana mountain range to find it.

La Reserva Puig Galatzo is a fabulous nature reserve deep in the forest at the western end of the Tramuntana. You can hike the pathways, enjoying the wildlife, pools and waterfalls. The adventure park has Mallorca's longest zip wire, rock climbing and Tibetan-style suspension bridges. A trip to the mountain range would only be complete with visiting the beautiful Deia. The village is one of the prettiest in Mallorca, and it has become a playground for the rich.
