Location & Local Information

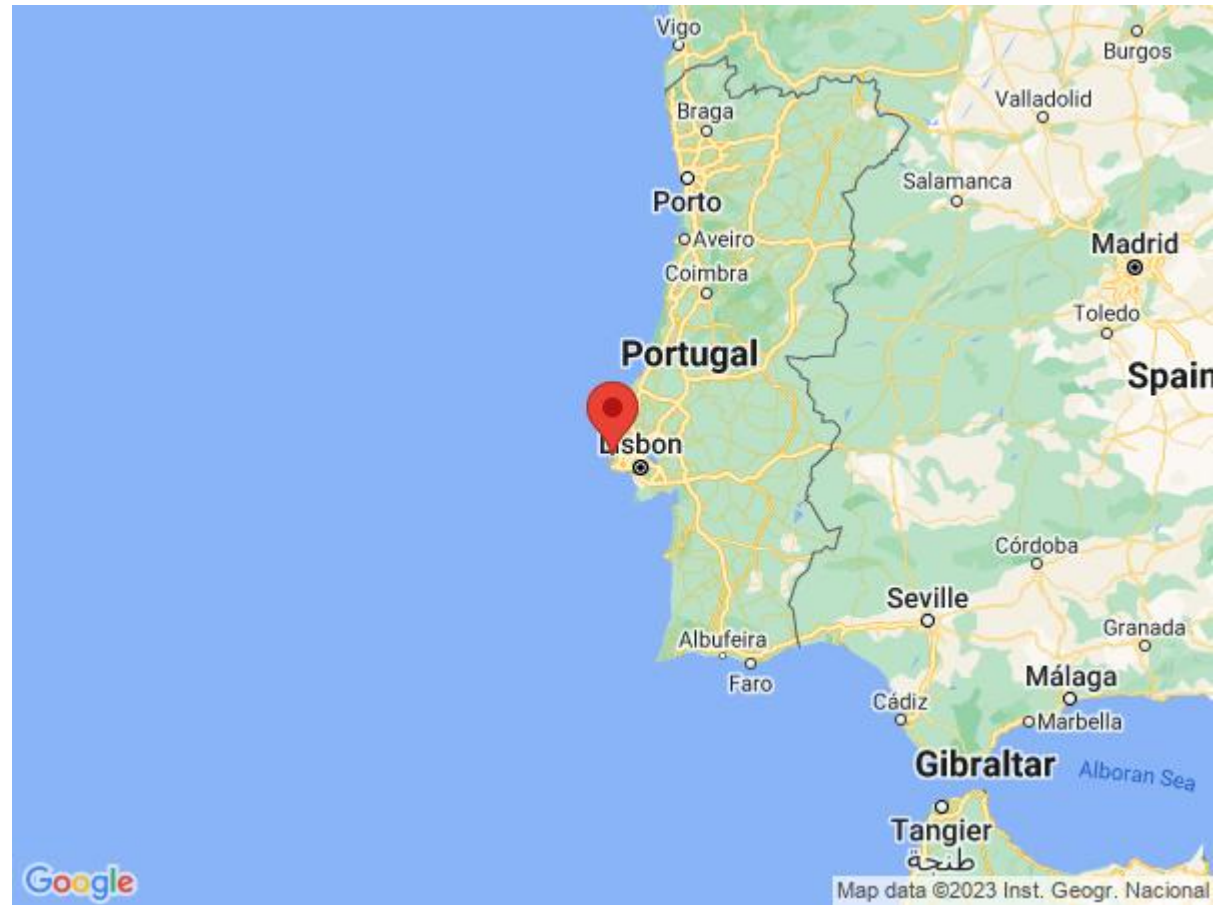

Villa Serra Mae is based just 5 minutes away from the centre of Colares, an extremely bustling region teeming with a wide selection of historical landmarks. Alongside these attractions, this area is well known for its vast portfolio of flawless beaches, such as Praia da Aroeira. This beach is fitted with an abundance of soft golden sand and endless stretches of sapphire blue water. In turn, this is an unmissable landmark for those eager to let go of their normal worries and learn to appreciate the stunning sights surrounding them. This beach also showcases a tremendous collection of gigantic cliffs and staggering rock structures, emphasising the natural wonders of this location. Praia da Aroeira is located just 20 minutes away from the villa.

Casal Santa Maria is a must-see attraction for those looking to deepen their understanding of the European wine industry. These extensive vineyards are based in western Europe, giving them a range of unique qualities that cannot be found elsewhere. Guests are encouraged to explore every element of this alluring establishment and take the time to learn more about how wine tourism has positively impacted this region. Once you have explored everything this winery offers, be sure to browse through the on-site shop so that you can purchase some off-beat souvenirs to show off back home. Casal Santa Maria is just under 40 minutes from Villa Serra Mae.

The Convent of the Capuchos is a profoundly mesmerising landmark that can be found just over 20 minutes away from the villa. This convent opened its doors in 1548 and was often used to protect some of Portugal's most important figures, such as Joao de Castro, best recognised as the Fourth Viceroy of India. This monument has gained a great amount of praise and was even classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1995. As such, this is an important landmark to visit if you wish to experience the region's impressive religious legacy from a much more intimate and personal perspective.
