

Chalet Gisele

Region: Argentiere Sleeps: 10

Overview

Boasting a tranquil garden, a private sauna and stunning views of Mont Blanc, Chalet Gisele is an elegant five-bedroom property in the village of Le Tour with an abundance of authentic charm! Offering plenty of home comforts for up to ten guests to enjoy, the chalet is ideally situated only a three-minute drive away from the exceptional ski resort facilities of central Argentière, while Le Tour ski lift is also within easy reach. The serene natural setting of Chalet Gisele makes this the perfect place to relax and unwind with your loved ones whilst soaking up the warm sunshine, snowy scenery and fresh mountain air of the spectacular Chamonix Valley.

Bright blue skies and the gentle alpine breeze will draw you outside to the chalet's sunny garden each day, where you can enjoy sipping your morning cup of coffee in the outdoor dining area, surrounded by majestic mountain vistas. The secluded garden provides barbecue facilities and plenty of space for family fun and games, while Chalet Gisele's peaceful balcony offers simple outdoor seating, the ideal spot in which to enjoy a private après-ski experience at sunset.

Inside the chalet, a welcoming open-plan living space features cosy, wood-panelled interiors and more enchanting views of the mountains. The lounge is warm and inviting, while a charming dining area provides plenty of space for everyone to gather together over a delicious meal and a glass of wine to discuss the day's adventures. The laidback living space leads into a spacious kitchen that comes fully equipped with modern appliances and everything you might need to prepare hearty, home-cooked meals. Guests at Chalet Gisele also benefit from a convenient ski storage area and laundry facilities, as well as a private garage.

The chalet boasts five bedrooms, one of which is a simple room located on the lower ground floor with bunk beds, a great space for teenagers or friends to share. A bathroom with a walk-in shower is also available on the lower ground floor. The remaining four bedrooms in Chalet Gisele are all to be found on the first floor, alongside a well-appointed family bathroom with a bath and shower. Rustic wood panelling and understated décor create a warm, restful ambience in both of the chalet's bright double bedrooms, while another delightful bedroom features a double bed, a single bed and a home library. The last bedroom is a compact and cosy single room with a traditional wash basin and a wardrobe. Meanwhile, the chalet's private sauna is the perfect place to unwind after a busy day spent exploring the wonders of the Chamonix Valley.

With truly unforgettable views and a superb location, Chalet Gisele is a timeless mountain retreat offering a relaxing and rejuvenating experience, whatever the season.

Location & Local Information

Chalet Gisele is situated in the traditional alpine village of Le Tour in the renowned Chamonix Valley, a winter sports paradise. The chalet's idyllic setting is a five-minute stroll away from local bars and restaurants, while a range of pâtisseries, boulangeries and supermarkets is available in nearby Argentière, only five minutes away by car. For those in search of a lively après-ski experience, the bustling town of Chamonix is less than a twenty-minute drive away. Ideally located amidst the picture-perfect natural beauty of the French Alps, Chalet Gisele offers guests a laidback mountain retreat with easy access to excellent ski resort amenities and breathtaking scenery.

With the lift leading up to the beautiful Balme ski area only a three-minute drive away, the chalet is ideal for those who wish to make the most of the slopes in the early morning sunshine and spend the whole day outside. During the summer months, Le Tour is a much-loved hiking and mountain biking destination, popular with locals and visitors alike, offering well-maintained trails leading up to the mesmerising views from the Glacier du Tour. Peaceful Le Toure village also provides visitors with easy access to Chamonix and the other ski areas of the valley.

The sun-drenched Balme ski area is home to over twenty varied and accessible slopes to suit every level of experience and ability. Visitors to the highest point of the Balme area, reaching 2,270m, will find plenty of blue and red slopes to enjoy. Meanwhile, nearby Argentière offers seasoned skiers three distinctive zones and incredible vistas, with steep terrain and challenging off-piste skiing. Ski areas here include the lower terrain around Argentière, the mountain stretching from Lognan to Borchard, as well as steeper alpine terrain that reaches up to 3,275m and includes the jaw-dropping Argentière glacier.

Home to the Kandahar World Cup skiing event, Les Houches is great for beginners, with a welcoming upper plateau that provides rewarding mountain views. Meanwhile, cable car rides offer breathtaking ascents to sublime summits, where you can marvel at the peaks of Les Droites and L'Aiguille Verte. After another day of adventure in the fresh air, the Chamonix Valley offers a myriad of après-ski options for visitors to enjoy, ranging from cosy inns to lively bars and outdoor events.

In Argentière, there are beautiful hiking routes to be explored during the warmer months, with the majestic sights of the Couloir du Grand Chantet and La Pierre a Bosson nearby, as well as the popular ascent to glacial Lac Blanc, which rewards hikers with mesmerising views of Mont Blanc. You can also spend a sunny morning hiking along the picture-perfect Petit Balcon Sud to reach Chamonix-Mont-Blanc, in time for a well-earned lunch of raclette and a glass of wine.
