Location & Local Information

Just over a ten-minute drive away is the town of Omis. Here you will find everything you need from stores, banks, cafes and restaurants.

Known for its long sandy beach, it is an ideal spot for families. Its cobbled streets and architecture will appeal to everyone as it evokes an aura of bygone days. Historically, this area was the home of sand harvesters, great shipbuilders, and belligerent pirates! You cannot fail to be charmed by the unique lush landscape and quaint fishing villages.

History lovers will be spoiled for choice in Omis for things to see. The Fortress Mirabella is a 13th Century fortress situated behind the Old Town. It is reached by taking the steps next to the Church of Saint Michael. Although there are a lot of steps to climb, it is well worth the effort for the spectacular views. Apart from the Church of Saint Michael, there are a number of old churches and an old Franciscan Monastery housing an impressive art collection and library of ancient Turkish documents. 15th Century Fortress Starigrad is also well worth a visit. Again, it involves a climb which takes at least one hour, so not for the faint-hearted. Once you have committed to the hike, you will not be disappointed. Perched 303 metres above sea level, it served as the primary lookout point for the entire Brac channel, and the views you will enjoy will be your reward for your hard work.

Try the very popular pirate evenings. The trip starts by sailing up the Cetina River, enjoying breathtaking views, and experiencing the pirates coming aboard and taking control of the vessel and all the drama that ensues. On arrival at Kastil Slanca, all guests and pirates are treated to a magnificent buffet of local delicacies, including Peka fish, meat dishes and Fritule, wine for the adults and soft drinks for the youngsters. End the evening with dancing and pirate games before arriving back well-fed, watered and ready for a good night's sleep.
