Location & Local Information

The Dominican Republic is located on the western side of the breathtaking island of Hispaniola, situated between the Atlantic Ocean to the north and the Caribbean Sea to the south. Home to over two hundred beaches, the nation offers visitors long, uninterrupted stretches of silken white sands and crystal-clear waters. Guests at Casa de Campo's oceanfront villas will enjoy the resort's dreamlike setting, next to the Mediterranean architecture and turquoise waters of La Romana and seventy miles from Santo Domingo, one of the oldest capital cities of the Caribbean. Surrounded by the verdant greenery of world-renowned golf courses and the sparkling waters of Playa Minitas, the exclusive Casa de Campo resort offers a wide array of exciting activities for guests.

Playa Minitas is a private beach for residents of Casa de Campo, offering aquatic adventures such as snorkelling, kayaking and plenty of opportunities for relaxation on shore. Beautiful Bayahibe Beach is only twenty minutes from Casa de Campo for those who fancy venturing a little further afield. As well as a host of water sports facilities, catamaran boat tours are available from Bayahibe to the magical Saona Island, which forms part of the Cotubanamá National Park. Visitors can swim on untouched beaches and discover tiny fishing villages here.

The Dominican Republic is known for being home to some of the best golf courses in the Caribbean, including the challenging but rewarding Teeth of the Dog course, exclusively designed for Casa de Campo by the American golf course architect Pete Dye. Here, the magnificent views and scenic oceanfront setting are bound to bring out the very best in your game! It's impressively the number 1 golf course in the Caribbean and Latin America!

The resort also features the excellent Casa de Campo Equestrian Centre and fabulous tennis courts, as well as a luxurious spa and wellness centre.

History enthusiasts will adore a visit to the colourful streets of Santo Domingo, a UNESCO World Heritage Site with a wealth of cultural landmarks to discover, including the impressive Basilica Cathedral of Santa Maria la Menor and the Monastery of San Francisco in the Zona Colonial. Besides being the ideal place to learn more about the vibrant and fascinating history of the Dominican Republic, the Zona Colonial of Santo Domingo is also a great spot in which to stop off for a morning cup of coffee on your way to the mesmerising Three Eyes National Park. The sprawling grounds of this spectacular nature reserve encompass a stunning open-air limestone cave system featuring three iridescent lagoons, the 'eyes' of the park. Don't forget to wear walking shoes here, so that you can spend plenty of time exploring in comfort.

Visitors to the Dominican Republic's southeastern coastline will be enchanted by the laidback way of life at Casa de Campo. The resort's fabulous facilities are yours to enjoy; while back at your oceanfront villa, you can take a dip in the private pool at sunset before preparing for dinner with a view at SBG Casa de Campo.
