Location & Local Information

Welcome to the enchanting resort town of Tignes, where Apartment Christine awaits to be your personal haven for an unforgettable Alpine adventure. Nestled in the heart of Tignes, this prime location is easy to get to and offers lots of exciting things to see and do during your visit.

Starting your holiday off is a breeze, with excellent transportation links making Tignes super easy to get to! If you're arriving by air, you can fly into Geneva and Lyon airports, both of which are approximately around a three-hour drive away or Chambéry Airport which is around two hours away. From there, you can opt for a private transfer or rent a car to enjoy your scenic drive through the stunning French Alps.

Once you've arrived at Apartment Christine, prepare to be captivated by the sheer range of activities available on your doorstep. Ski enthusiasts will be in paradise, as Tignes is renowned for its world-class slopes and has access to some of the best skiing in the world. Explore the vast ski area that Tignes shares with neighbouring Val d'Isère at your leisure, with over 300km of interconnected slopes, meaning you'll find endless opportunities for excitement and thrills.

For adrenaline junkies, try your hand at ice climbing, testing your skills on frozen waterfalls under the guidance of experienced instructors, or hop on a snowmobile and zoom across the snowy landscapes, feeling the wind rush through your hair. Or, for those seeking more laid-back activities, let the magic of winter settle in from the back of a horse-drawn sleigh tour through majestic pine forests.

In the resort centre, indulge in the vibrant culture and après-ski scene that Tignes is famous for. Sip on a refreshing drink at La Folie Douce, a lively mountain bar known for its electric atmosphere and live entertainment, or treat your taste buds to delectable French cuisine at one of the charming local restaurants, such as L'Armailly or Les Campanules.
