Location & Local Information

Apartment Bruna can be found overlooking the snow-capped mountains of the French Alps, nestled in the heart of exclusive Courchevel Village.

There are a number of options to reach your holiday home, all within a three-hour radius. In peak season, fly into the major international airports of Geneva and Lyon or the more local but less well-served Chambéry and Grenoble. From the airport, take a taxi private hire car or jump aboard one of the regular shuttle services and enjoy the drive through Alpine forests. For those of you feeling flush, charter a helicopter and arrive in style.

Courchevel Village, at 1550m above sea level, is the lowest of the Trois Vallées resorts and is famous for being family-friendly, peaceful, and populated with traditional wooden chalets.

The apartment is at the epicentre of the action; everything you will need is within walking distance. Local shops and stores are stocked with provisions to cater for your holiday, and a Tuesday market is French foodie heaven, selling ripe cheeses and hand-cured meats. For information about what to do and see, there is a handy tourist office. A ski school and kindergarten are almost on your doorstep, perfect for your young ones and beginners.

It's a short twenty-metre walk to the nearest ski slope and only one hundred metres to the ski lift, which connects with the other two Trois Vallées resorts and a plethora of six hundred kilometres of ski runs of every colour.

For those who may not want to ski, or if you fancy doing something different, there are lots of activities to keep you busy, starting with the apartment's gym and spa. Nearby is the Aquamotion Aquatic Centre, a six-pool swimming complex that offers a wide range of fun and relaxation activities for people of all ages. Take a gondola to the other two resorts and explore what they have to offer, especially the top of the world, jet-set Courchevel 1850, where you can wander through the quaint streets lined with luxury boutiques, and shop for souvenirs, ski wear, designer labels, and fabulous French food. For the adrenalin seekers, paraglide over the peaks; for the romantics, see the mountains from the comfort of a horse-drawn sleigh. There's a whole host of seasonal sports to keep you amused, including walking and mountain biking, canyoning and archery, kayaking and horseriding, golf and climbing, and cookery classes for the not-so-inclined.

As dusk falls and après ski beckons, head to the local sports bars for a fun night out or dine at one of the many restaurants serving French delicacies and international cuisine.
