Location & Local Information

Apartment Marcel can be found overlooking the snow-capped mountains of the French Alps, nestled in the heart of exclusive Courchevel Village.

There's a choice of ways to reach your holiday home, all within a three hour radius. In peak season fly into the major international airports of Geneva and Lyon, or the more local, but less well served, Chambéry and Grenoble. From the airport take a taxi, private hire car, or jump aboard one of the regular shuttle services, and enjoy the drive through Alpine forests. For those of you feeling flush, charter a helicopter and arrive in style.

Courchevel Village at 1550m above sea level is the lowest of the Trois Vallees resorts, and is famous for being family-friendly, peaceful, and populated with traditional wooden chalets.

The apartment is at the epicentre of the action, everything you will need is within walking distance. Local shops and stores are stocked with provisions to cater for your holiday, and a Tuesday market is a French foodie heaven, selling ripe cheeses and hand cured meats. For information about what to do and see there is a handy tourist office. A ski school and kindergarten is almost on your doorstep, perfect for your young ones and beginners.

It's a short twenty metre walk to the nearest ski slope, and only one hundred metres to the ski lift, which connects with the other two Trois Vallees resorts, and a plethora of six hundred kilometres of ski runs of every colour.

For those who may not want to ski, or if you fancy doing something different, there's lots of activities to keep you busy, starting with the apartment's gym and spa. Nearby is the Aquamotion Aquatic Centre, a six pool swimming complex, which offers a wide range of fun and relaxation activities for people of all ages. Take a gondola to the other two resorts and explore what they have to offer, especially the top of the world, jet-set Courchevel 1850, where you can wander through the quaint streets lined with luxury boutiques, and shop for souvenirs, ski wear, designer labels, and fabulous French food. For the adrenalin seekers, paraglide over the peaks, for the romantics, see the mountains from the comfort of a horse drawn sleigh. There's a whole host of seasonal sports to keep you amused, including walking and mountain biking, canyoning and archery, kayaking and horseriding, golf and climbing, and cookery classes for the not so inclined.

As dusk falls and après ski beckons, head to the local sports bars for a fun night out, or dine at one of the many restaurants serving French delicacies and international cuisine.

- We love that Apartment Marcel is tailor made for a family of six, with a stylish master bedroom, and a fun children's rooms with two sets of bunk beds.
- The picture windows in the living space open onto a furnished terrace, where even when its chilly, it's lovely to sit and enjoy a coffee or cocktail with a view.
- The apartment is superbly stylish, exquisitely furnished with contemporary pieces, yet still manages to have that holiday home from home vibe
- Apartment Marcel is perfectly positioned to enjoy all the amenities. Courchevel Village has to offer, and is especially good for children with a nearby kindergarten, ski school, and swimming pool complex.

What you should know...

- Courchevel Village does not have a pharmacy, so make sure you pack all the medication and toiletries you will need for your stay.
- The children's bedroom is windowless, which may be fun for some, but claustrophobic for others.
- The bunk beds would be too short to accommodate adults, the apartment is ideal for a family of six.
- Spa treatments are subject to charge.
