Location & Local Information

Located in the midst of the magical French Alps, Apartment Theo enjoys a prime position, nestled in the heart of Courchevel Village. Slightly quieter than the higher districts, the Village (or 1500) is a mix of traditional chalets and modern hotels, and just 50m away, the Grangette Gondola will transport you to the central lifts where you can find an impressive piste map waiting to be explored.

Part of the renowned Trois Vallées, Courchevel is one of the world's most connected resorts, and with a high proportion of north-facing slopes, you can expect reliable snow cover and some of the finest powder around. A number of ski schools offer group and private tuition, perfect for those looking to develop confidence, and the area of La Tania features a number of beginner zones and nursery slopes. A mix of classic reds and challenging blacks are suited to more seasoned skiers or hire a guide and head off-piste to discover the valley's full potential. Les Creux Noirs is a challenging east-facing slope with complex couloirs and rock bands, or seek out some speed at the top of the resort and enjoy a fast-past run down the Grand Couloir.

Courchevel's hospitality is on par with the skiing, and a number of exclusive hotels have attracted an impressive fine dining scene. For those just looking for a simple pit stop, Le Pilatus is the perfect place for lunch in the sun, with a delicious menu of French classics and an unbeatable view of the alitport runway. Alternatively, La Cave des Creux is a favourite amongst locals and instructors, with a laid-back atmosphere and wonderful brasserie-style menu that celebrates ingredients sourced from the surrounding region. Le Caterail is the perfect place to end the day, with live bands and DJs playing late into the night, and guests can make the most of the upbeat scene before catching the gondola back down the valley.

For non-skiers or those looking for a fun day off, there is plenty to see and do, both on and off the mountain. A pedestrian lift pass invites you to discover the circus of walking trails, and you can grab a pair of 'raquettes' to head off the beaten track and uncover the wilder side of the valley. For a bit of a thrill, head up to Moriond to race down to the impressive luge track or enjoy a more leisurely experience being pulled along on a sled by a pack of huskies. Alternatively, if you are after a complete wind-down, many of the hotels feature luxury spas that are open to non-guests or head along to Aquamotion to swim in the outdoor pool or sit in the snow-lined jacuzzi and soak your tired muscles.
