Location & Local Information

Situated in Pralong, at the top of 1850, Apartment Clematis enjoys a quiet position with wonderful views over the Courchevel Valley, and with the slopes just moments away, it is the ideal spot for those looking for ski-in, ski-out convenience.

Just 30m from the nearest ski lift, guests can make the most of the mountain, and a vast offering of runs has something to suit all abilities. Part of the Trois Vallées, Courchevel is the ultimate ski resort, with a high-altitude, efficient lift system and majority of north-facing slopes that ensure a consistent deep snow cover. For those after a challenge, a variety of steep corridors and technical pistes can be found around La Saulire, or head to the Grand Couloir to try out L'Eclipse, an impressive fast run recently completed for the 2023 World Championships. Combe Saulire is a great signature red, whilst a handful of blues and green are perfect for those seeking a more gentle experience. Several nursery areas and dedicated beginner zones are ideal for first-timers, and there are plenty of ski schools and instructors to help build up confidence before moving further up the mountain.

Having attracted some of the world's most exclusive hotels, Courchevel boasts an impressive fine dining scene, whilst, for those simply after a midday snack, plenty of charming mountain restaurants can be found perched to the side of the slopes. Situated beside the airport, Le Pilatus is a great place to stop for lunch with a bird's eye view of the runway or visit La Cave des Creux, where you can sit out on the terrace and soak up the sun. Run by two brothers, the restaurant is a popular spot with locals and serves an authentic brasserie menu celebrating ingredients sourced from the surrounding region. Les Verdons is a fun spot to end the day with live music and dancing, or head to Le Caterail, where you can party with the DJ late into the night.

Courchevel has plenty to offer away from the slopes, with a variety of activities to be found on and off the mountains. A pedestrian lift pass is a good option for non-skiers to meet up with friends for lunch beside the slopes whilst also giving access to the resort's network of hiking trails. Hire a guide to take you into the heart of the valley, or hop on a sledge and be pulled through the scented pines by a pack of charming huskies. For those looking for a more thrilling experience, paragliding flights take place throughout the year or head over to Moriond, where you can speed down the impressive luge track.
