

Apartment Chartier

Region: Courchevel Sleeps: 4 - 8

Overview

Sitting on the hillside in the centre of Courchevel Moriond, this splendid south-facing apartment offers an unforgettable escape, with a cosy interior and panoramic views across the valley and out to the snow-capped mountains.

Arranged over a single level, Apartment Chartier is bright and spacious, enjoying plenty of natural light through large openings that frame stunning views of the Vanoise peaks. Upon entering, a central living space unfolds, with a snug seating area tucked to one side where large sofas invite you to curl up with a book and relax in comfort after a long day on the slopes. A neat kitchen area is fully equipped for preparing meals throughout your stay, and the dining table has ample room for everyone, perfect for enjoying hearty home-cooked dinners together. Wrapping the front of the room, large windows offer views from every angle, whilst double doors open onto the balcony, inviting you to step out to enjoy the fresh mountain air or sit with a warming hot chocolate whilst admiring the fantastic view.

There are three bedrooms in total, accommodating up to eight guests. A children's bedroom features a bunk bed and two twins, whilst the master suite and further room offer large doubles. All the rooms boast generous windows so you can look over the wonderful landscape from the comfort of your own bed, and the master suite also has direct access out onto the terrace. There are two bathrooms, giving the option of a shower and bath, whilst a separate toilet is handy for hosting additional guests. The apartment also has a laundry room, as well as a garage on the lower floor, perfect for storing ski gear and wet kit.

Location & Local Information

Situated in the centre of Courchevel Moriond, Apartment Chartier enjoys stunning views across the valley, and with the lifts just moments away, guests can get out on the runs early and explore the resort's impressive piste map.

Sitting at 1650m, Moriond has a friendly atmosphere and is ideal for those looking to escape the crowds of 1850 and enjoy a relaxing break in the mountains. The village has good local amenities, quality hire shops and plenty of great restaurants, perfect for lunch in the sun or a fun dinner out. La Casserole boasts a fantastic south-facing terrace, whilst Le Bel Air is popular amongst both locals and visitors, and you can take a seat at one of the outdoor tables and enjoy delicious plates of French classics. An alpine holiday wouldn't be complete without indulging in fondue or raclette, and Le Petit Savoyard is the place to go. Run by locals, the charming little restaurant always has a buzzing atmosphere.

Part of the Trois Vallées, Courchevel is the ultimate resort with something to offer for everyone. Whether a seasoned skier or those just starting out, the mostly north-facing slopes ensure reliable snow cover with some of the Alps' finest powder. Topping out at 2740m, La Saulire is the highest point in the valley and boasts steep corridors and challenging technical pistes. Combe Saulire is a great signature run best hit early in the day, or if you are looking for speed, head over to L'Eclipse, which was recently completed for the 2023 World Championships.

Beginners can enjoy dedicated zones at La Tania or practice on the nursery slopes, and there are plenty of ski schools that will offer both group and private tuition to help you build up confidence before heading further up the mountain.

For non-skiers, the pedestrian lift pass is a great way to experience the Alps, and you can head out to explore the valley's network of hiking trails. Grab a pair of 'raquettes' and wander through the wooded pines, or take a tour to be guided across the mountain's wilder side. A selection of toboggan runs offer an entertaining afternoon, and the impressive Moriond luge track is a heart-stopping experience. Speed down the slopes, racing through underground tunnels and zig-zagging around bends, or opt for a more gentle ride being pulled along on a sledge by a pack of charming huskies.

If you are simply looking for a bit of rest and relaxation, Courchevel hosts some of the world's most exclusive hotels, many of which feature luxury spas open to non-guests. Book into a treatment or indulge in an afternoon of pampering, soaking tired muscles in a snow-lined jacuzzi or enjoying a well-earned massage.
