Location & Local Information

Villa Lavrie is located in Dvornica, a small settlement on Croatia's beautiful Dalmatian coastline, known for its crystal-clear waters, fragrant Mediterranean pine forests and rolling olive groves. Ideal for those searching for a tranquil getaway, there are a few local shops and restaurants serving traditional Dalmatian delicacies within easy driving distance, while the lively coastal town of Rogoznica is only fifteen minutes away by car.

Rogoznica is famous for its serene bay and laidback Mediterranean charm. The locals are understandably proud of their stunning beaches, stretching fifty kilometres of dazzling turquoise waters. The vibrant centre of the town is located on a peninsula that was once an island. Today, it is connected to the mainland by a manmade isthmus but retains its unique island feel. Surrounded by forests and dotted with traditional stone houses, the town is also well known for its scenic port and the impressive harbour at Marina Frapa.

History enthusiasts will enjoy learning more about the cultural heritage of Rogoznica at the Church of the Assumption, while visitors to the Chapel of the Blessed Virgin Mary can admire sweeping ocean views under the shade of fragrant pine trees. Rogoznica is also home to various musical and cultural events during the summer months, with restaurants serving traditional Dalmatian dishes made from fresh fish and crab and fabulous Croatian wines, locally produced olive oil, homemade cheeses and prosciutto.

An incredible sight loved by locals and visitors alike is Rogoznica's impressive saltwater lake, aptly known as Dragon's Eye. Located on the Gradina Peninsula, this oval-shaped lake is the site of a fascinating local legend, surrounded by rugged cliffs and offering visitors a magical swimming spot. For a unique day trip to discover more of Croatia's stunning natural beauty, Krka National Park is roughly an hour's drive away from Dvornica. The park features fantastic walking and cycling trails leading to majestic gorges and seven cascading waterfalls.

The narrow, labyrinthine streets of the old town of Trogir are approximately thirty minutes away from Dvornica by car. This enchanting medieval town is a UNESCO World Heritage Site near the lively city of Split. Enjoy a leisurely lunch in an atmospheric square or visit the Trogir fruit market by the old town bridge, where you will find fresh fruit and vegetables and excellent local produce such as honey and olive oil. A trip to Split will satisfy city lovers' cravings for the hustle and bustle, with plenty of ancient sites to explore, including the spectacular ruins of the Roman emperor Diocletian's palace.
