

Apartment Petrarca

Region: Florence Sleeps: 8 - 10

Overview

Apartment Petrarca is a sophisticated and spacious retreat situated within a 19th-century palazzo in the enchanting centre of Florence. This elegant four-bedroom, five-bathroom apartment offers the perfect combination of tranquillity and convenience, allowing you to enjoy the privacy of your fully equipped space while being ideally located to explore the captivating city.

Accessed via a few steps from the main Palazzo entrance, with the option of stairs or a lift to the third floor and internal stairs to the fourth floor, this apartment exudes peace and sunlight. It is perfect for larger gatherings, bringing your family or friends together.

Upon entering, you are greeted by grand Tuscan-timbered double doors that lead directly into an elegant reception hall and breakfast room. Custom cabinetry, a circular table seating eight, and a well-equipped galley-style kitchen with integrated appliances await beyond. The sunny and inviting sitting/dining room exudes a similar warmth with its terracotta hues—natural light streams in through two tall, shuttered windows overlooking Via Mozza. The room is tastefully furnished with a large L-shaped sofa in chic neutrals, a circular glass-topped dining table for eight, and wooden flooring adorned with a Kilim rug. You will also find a charming guest bathroom showcasing locally crafted duck-egg blue 'flora and fauna' wallcovering, complete with a wash-hand basin and toilet.

A tranquil double bedroom awaits at the rear of the apartment, adorned in natural linen, salvia green, and terracotta colours. The room features a half-poster double bed beneath a ceiling fresco with a traditional 'Greek key' pattern. The space is complete with a walk-in closet and a sleek en-suite bathroom with polished marmorino and marble shower.

Ascending the sweeping wooden staircase in the reception hall, you discover the fourth floor, where three additional beamed and vaulted en suite double bedrooms await. The apartment's splendid principal bedroom is a sanctuary of natural linen and sun-baked colours. It offers wardrobes, a double bed adorned with the signature motif of the Dimora Italia Collection's velvet cushions, a sparkling en suite bathroom with a marble shower and a stand-alone rolltop bathtub. This bedroom also boasts a fabulous furnished terrace, providing unforgettable rooftop views of the verdant hills, Brunelleschi's Duomo, and Santa Croce.

A cosy and classically styled third double bedroom features twin beds in soft blue greys, a mirrored wardrobe, and an en suite bathroom with a sparkling tiled shower. The fourth and final double bedroom is an utterly charming haven with a double bed dressed in Casamance's Paradisiaca fabric (which can be converted into twin beds upon request). It includes a rear closet and an en-suite bathroom adorned with marble, marmorino, and gorgeous 'honeycomb' ceramic tiling encapsulating the shower.

Apartment Petrarca promises an exquisite stay, immersing you in the elegance of a historic palazzo while providing modern comforts and stunning views of Florence.

Location & Local Information

This exquisite apartment is nestled within a 19th-century palazzo, ideally located in the charming centre of Florence. Here, you can immerse yourself in the tranquillity and seclusion of your own private and fully equipped haven, perfectly positioned to explore the captivating city.

Conveniently situated near the Uffizi Gallery, this apartment offers the best of both worlds—proximity to small shops, cafes, and restaurants without sacrificing the peaceful ambience. The Palazzo itself spans five storeys, housing several magnificent apartments that promise a luxurious experience steeped in the essence of Florence. Meticulously reconfigured over three years by a team of highly skilled experts who deeply understand and appreciate the historical significance of the Palazzo, the building embodies a harmonious blend of the past and present.

Florence, the jewel of Tuscany, enthralls visitors with its timeless beauty, rich history, and breathtaking artwork. Celebrated as the birthplace of the Renaissance, the city resembles a living museum, where every corner unveils architectural marvels, majestic palaces, and internationally renowned masterpieces. Take leisurely strolls across the iconic Ponte Vecchio, a medieval bridge adorned with exquisite jewellery shops, and lose yourself in the mesmerizing views of the Arno River. Witness the magnificence of the Florence Cathedral, crowned by Brunelleschi's awe-inspiring dome, or immerse yourself in the world of art at the Uffizi Gallery, showcasing extraordinary works by Michelangelo, Botticelli, and Raphael.

Florence's allure extends beyond its art and architecture. Delight in the tantalizing flavours of Tuscan cuisine, savouring hearty dishes like bistecca alla Fiorentina and indulging in mouthwatering gelato. Explore the vibrant San Lorenzo Market, where you can peruse stalls brimming with locally crafted leather goods, fresh produce, and unique handcrafted items.

With its enchanting atmosphere, rich artistic heritage, and culinary delights, Florence promises an unforgettable experience for every traveller. Let the magic of this extraordinary city ignite your imagination and create cherished memories that will endure a lifetime.
