Location & Local Information

Villa Tarcin can be found at the apex of the hillside overlooking beautiful Kalamar Bay, near the exclusive harbour town resort of Kalkan, situated on Turkey's Turquoise Coast, the jewel of the Mediterranean Sea. The villa is one hundred and thirty kilometres from Dalaman Airport, a scenic one-and-a-half-hour journey through the Turkish countryside and Taurus mountains.

The old town of Kalkan is covered in cobbled streets, traditional white houses festooned in colourful bougainvillea, and home to a reputed one hundred and fifty restaurants, cafes, and bars, enticing souvenir shops, and designer brand stores stuffed with objects of desire. After dark, dine in one of the famous rooftop restaurants with stunning harbour and sea views, sampling traditional Turkish delights and international cuisine. From the villa, it is a short drive to the local shops and restaurants of Kalamar and a five-minute drive into Kalkan, where you can find supermarkets, banks, and a local Thursday market.

Within walking distance of the villa are three Kalamar Bay beach clubs, with restaurants, infinity swimming pools, and bathing platforms. Kalkan town has its own pebble beach with organised sun loungers and brollies, easy access into the calm Mediterranean sea, and a cute cafe. Travel further afield to the stunning Kaputas Beach, set in a natural gorge, or take a trip to Patara, where you will find twenty kilometres of unspoilt golden sands and a protected area for the hatching Caretta Caretta turtles. Patara also boasts an archaeological site over two thousand years old, with not just one but two ancient amphitheatres, not to mention the most stunning sunsets, best seen from the ever-changing sand dunes.

All aboard a traditional gulet for a day of sunbathing, swimming, and snorkelling, enjoy a meal of homecooked meze, then sail back to the harbour, cocktail in hand, to watch the sunset.

The Lycian Way walking trail cuts through Kalkan. Follow in the footsteps of thousands of years of history as you trek the trail taking you through major archaeological sites, local villages, dramatic coastlines, and the areas' flora and fauna.

The harbour town of Fethiye is also full of ancient sites worth seeing, as well as a foodie-heaven fish market, and home to some seriously good designer labels and fabulous jewellery shopping. Whilst the nearer town of Kas is just twenty-five kilometres in the other direction and worth the journey alone along one of the world's most stunning and dramatic coastlines.

What we love

- We loved the sunken soft seating spot at Villa Tarcin, with its glass front, it was the perfect place to meet for cocktails and watch the sunset over the islands and horizon.
- Villa Tarcin has the most exquisite bedrooms, beautifully decorated with backdrop murals, ensuite marble bathrooms, and glass-fronted sea-view balconies.
- The deep cushioned double day beds are a dream, lie back, relax, and dip your toes in the cool water of the shallow end of the swimming pool – bliss.
- We love the underground basement car park, with an elevator to the ground floor terrace, it had a fabulous James Bond vibe!

What you should know...

- Villa Tarcin is set at the top of a steep hill, which may be difficult for those with mobility issues.
