Location & Local Information

Chalet Caroline sits at the edge of Alpe D'Huez, a popular ski resort located in the French Alps, just over an hour's drive from Grenoble airport and two hours from Lyon.

Known for its stunning views and excellent skiing opportunities, Chalet Caroline is just a short walk away from the slope entrance making it the perfect ski-in, ski-out chalet.

With one of the largest ski areas in Europe, Alpe D'Huez benefits from a wide range of pistes and activities, making it a popular choice for skiers of all abilities.

From gentle greens for beginners to challenging blacks for experienced skiers, the resort also offers excellent off-piste skiing and a snow park for freestyle enthusiasts. In addition to skiing, there are plenty of other winter activities to try your hand at while in the area, including snowshoeing and sledging.

The resort's village centre is a charming mix of traditional alpine architecture and modern facilities, with a variety of shops, restaurants, and bars to explore. For entertainment, the resort also hosts regular events throughout the year and is home to a large sports centre with a swimming pool, sauna, and fitness facilities.

What we love

- From the moment we stepped into Chalet Caroline, its spaciousness and inviting decor made us feel instantly at home, plus it's ski-in ski-out!
- Watching the sun set and rise over the mountains from Chalet Caroline's balcony was a breathtaking experience we'll always treasure.
- Being a mixed group, the proximity of Chalet Caroline to both the slopes and non-skiing activities was a perfect fit for our diverse interests.

What you should know...

- Chalet Caroline is situated in the heart of Alpe D'Huez, which can be a bustling and lively resort at peak times. While the chalet is well-insulated against noise, you may occasionally be able to hear background noise from the resort, especially when events are happening.
