

Edith Cottage

Region: Bath Sleeps: 1 - 4

Overview

Edith Cottage, nestled at the heart of Bath's historical Artisan Quarter, offers a captivating blend of historic charm and modern sophistication. As you step into this vibrant area, you'll be transported back in time, exploring its eclectic boutiques, quirky cafes, and contemporary restaurants, making it the perfect base for an authentic Bath experience.

This characterful cottage boasts two king-size bedrooms and a prime city-centre location, catering to couples, small friend groups, or young families seeking a beautiful space to unwind while immersing themselves in the wonders of Bath.

Despite its historical roots, Edith Cottage exudes a youthful energy with its bright and modern interior, adorned with designer furnishings that evoke a high-end boutique ambience. Dining at home is a delightful affair, with a fully equipped kitchen and a raised al fresco terrace accessible via the outside courtyard. If the weather doesn't permit outdoor dining, the cosy dining room with a large table and four chairs provides a charming alternative for social meals.

The downstairs living room is a versatile space, perfect for relaxation, entertainment, or gaming with a selection of board games. The comfortable sofas, adorned with limited edition Always Sunday cushions, offer a cosy spot to unwind in front of the Smart TV or explore the collection of indie magazines. A vintage French radio sets the tone, allowing you to create the perfect atmosphere with your favourite music playlists.

Upstairs, the bedrooms are a sight to behold, adorned with designer Divine Savages wallpaper, antique crystal chandeliers, and original artwork, creating a timeless dreamland where old-world opulence meets modern luxury, ensuring a peaceful and splendid slumber. The bathroom, featuring a freestanding claw-footed bathtub surrounded by unique pink handmade tiles, offers a soothing retreat for a relaxing soak or refreshing shower with local Ubiety brand wellness products.

While Edith Cottage transports you to bygone eras, it remains well-connected to the modern world. The Smart TV is equipped with NOW TV, and Wi-Fi is available throughout the cottage, allowing guests to stay connected and entertained. Many vintage items and artworks found within the cottage can be purchased from local stores, adding a touch of uniqueness to your stay.

Edith Cottage offers a delightful fusion of historical charm and contemporary luxury, providing families and groups with a unique and stylish retreat in the heart of Bath's vibrant Artisan Quarter. Immerse yourself in the city's rich heritage while indulging in the comforts of modern living, making Edith Cottage an exceptional choice for an unforgettable Bath getaway.
