Location & Local Information

The island of Pag is known for being a truly unique gem in the Adriatic Sea, with dramatic, moonlike landscapes and a shimmering turquoise coastline. Bright yellow immortelle flowers grow wild all over Pag, with a heady fragrance that combines with the sea salt in the air. The island is conveniently connected to mainland Croatia by the Pag Bridge and a frequent ferry service. However, once you have crossed over to Pag's sloping, soft-pink hills, endless olive groves and secluded, sunny beaches, you will find yourself transported to an idyllic island with a laidback lifestyle, vibrant coastal towns and a wealth of natural beauty to enjoy.

Plenty of beautiful, remote beaches are located in the bays which stretch from the Lun Peninsula towards the popular town of Novalja, as well as in the areas of Kusti?i, Zubovi?i, and Metajna. The warm, shallow cove at Planjka Trin?el is approximately twenty minutes away from Villa Zahara by car. Meanwhile, the beaches at Babe, Delfinka and Šimuni are just a few more of the enchanting coastal wonders you will find yourself exploring on the shores of Pag.

For those who wish to soak up the island's lively nightlife, Zr?e Beach is a famous Croatian party destination with music and dancing late into the night. In the seaside town of Novalja, a twenty-minute drive away from the villa, visitors will enjoy a wide range of activities, from fantastic gastronomic experiences to music festivals, watersports and boat tours.

As you wander the charming streets of Pag's old town, you can visit the Pag Lace Museum to learn about the intricacies of the island's ancient craft. Admire the fifteenth-century Church of the Assumption before making your way towards Gligora Dairy, where foodies will be in cheese heaven after a guided tour and a tasting session. Intimate vineyard tours and wine tastings are also available on the island.

For a day trip to remember, drive to the quirky seaside streets of the famous city of Zadar, approximately an hour and a half away from Villa Zahara by car.

Here, the Cathedral of St. Anastasia, the magical installation known as the Salutation to the Sun and the musical Sea Organ make Zadar a special city with plenty to offer its visitors.

Adventure seekers will be excited to learn that Pag is also home to 'Life on Mars', a breathtaking hiking destination. The four designated trekking trails encompass sixteen kilometres of spectacular coastal scenery. Meanwhile, several marked trails lead from the beach at Kolan to Sveti Vid, the island's highest peak, offering panoramic views of Pag and its neighbouring islands, as well as dreamlike sunset vistas.
