

Chalet Charles

Region: Val Thorens Sleeps: 12

Overview

Perched magnificently atop Val Thorens, Europe's highest ski station, the charismatic Chalet Charles commands attention amidst the French Alps. Presenting an unrivalled perspective, this luxurious retreat promises an unparalleled vista of the alpine spectacle.

Enveloped in sunlight, the chalet's five splendid suites offer an intimate refuge of style and comfort. With a capacity for up to twelve cherished companions, this south-facing haven bathes in the sun's warmth, welcoming families and friends alike.

Emanating an organic elegance, Chalet Charles pays homage to its surroundings. A symphony of leather, wood, and wool converges to create an interior that mirrors the beauty of nature, nurturing a sense of relaxation and allure. The hearth, a captivating centrepiece, weaves stories and laughter as panoramic windows frame the expansive ski terrain and the tranquil snowy valley below, painting a living canvas of nature's artistry.

But the indulgence doesn't halt with outdoor exploits. As day turns to dusk, the spa beckons, offering a sanctuary of repose. Immerse yourself in the sauna's calming embrace or soak in the jacuzzi, letting the mountain air revive your senses. For active souls, the gym provides a space to rejuvenate tired muscles.

Evenings unfurl into a culinary adventure. Relish the bounty of locally sourced ingredients, allowing the essence of the mountains to dance upon your palate. The top-floor library is the perfect spot to curl up with a well-loved book, engage in spirited foosball matches in the game room, or transform your evening into a cinematic delight in the private home theatre.

Chalet Charles artfully merges opulence with intimacy, creating a lavish escape that celebrates both abundance and seclusion. With each facet a testament to luxury and each amenity crafted for indulgence, this self-catered chalet transcends a mere destination, delivering an encounter that encapsulates elevated living amid the French Alps' embrace.
