

Angel Apartment

Region: London Sleeps: 2 - 4

Overview

Perfect for those looking to relax while exploring the vibrant hotspots of Central London, Angel Apartment is a newly refurbished one-bedroom flat that sleeps four. Set minutes away from Angel Underground Tube Station, it couldn't be more conveniently located.

The apartment sits on the third floor of a lovingly resorted Grade II listed Georgian terraced house — that adds a charm of its own. Moving indoors, you're greeted by bright spaces, contemporary designs and wood-finished elements. Double-height ceilings and exposed beams create a synergy of warmth and comfort.

Spend hours in the cosy living area, ideal to put up your feet and unwind before the TV. It comes with a puffy sofa bed and oodles of sunlight. For those working remotely, a study desk and complimentary Wi-Fi are also provided.

Whip up home-cooked meals in the adjoining open-plan kitchen or enjoy a round of cocktails with your loved ones at the large dining table. The kitchen is sleek and well-equipped, dotted with marble countertops and wooden cabinetry. It's stocked with essentials like sugar, tea, coffee and granola for a delightful start to your mornings. An oven, refrigerator, microwave and dishware are available for your convenience.

After a thrilling day pottering around the city's hotspots, retire to the comfort of a private bedroom. Located in the back of the apartment, you're sure to be away from the bustling humdrum. Complete with a double-sized bed, picture window and a casual, laid-back theme, you're promised a restful night's sleep. There's also a bathroom accessible through the living area, stocked with towels and premium toiletries.

Make the most of the apartment's prime location. Experience the tapestry of history, culture and culinary delights that London has to offer.

Location & Local Information

London is always a good idea. Fill your visits with delicious food, stunning views and unforgettable adventures. From the teeming Financial District to the charming allure of East London, you're never too far from the city's popular attractions.

A 2-minute walk takes you to Angel Tube Station, from where you can easily explore the neighbourhood via its well-connected underground network. Angel is a bustling shopping and entertainment hub, brimming with a variety of cocktails bars, British pubs and lively restaurants. The charming Chapel Market remains ever popular for stalls selling fresh produce, household items and fashion wear. If that's not enough, head to Angel Central, a treasure trove of retail brands.

Go on a leisurely stroll along Regent's Canal, one of London's most scenic walking trails. Enjoy mornings of tranquillity in Islington Green, boasting trees dating back to 1808.

Spend your evenings exploring the lively dining spots of Exmouth Market, tucked an amble away. You'll find a wide variety of boutique shops and entertainment that will keep you busy for hours. Exuding a lively, hipster atmosphere, Exmouth Market is also home to some of the best craft beer pubs.

Next, take a trip to Camden Passage, a quaint historic street nestled alongside Upper Street in Islington — and en route to Angel Station. Spend time exploring its array of shops, tucked-away cafes and a host of antique markets. No cars are allowed here, making it ideal for pedestrians to walk around.

Experience live music and gigs at Union Chapel, a majestic church also known for hosting charity events for the homeless. Its intricate Victorian Gothic architecture and high-quality acoustics make it a fantastic venue for music shows.
