

Kingsley Apartment

Region: London Sleeps: 2 - 4

Overview

Savour the homey ambience of this one-bedroom apartment while exploring the wealth of attractions located in Central London. Tucked minutes away from Angel Underground Tube Station, it sleeps four guests, offering all the comfort of modern travel.

The apartment is set on the first floor of a lovingly resorted Grade II listed Georgian terraced house. Moving indoors, you're welcomed by bright spaces that ooze a tranquil vibe throughout the day. Clean, contemporary designs blend seamlessly with rustic wooden work, and floor-to-ceiling windows provide ample light throughout the place.

Make yourself comfortable in the inviting living area, where white-washed interiors are complemented with vibrant hues. Unwind for hours on the cosy sofa bed and gaze out at the bustling outdoors. For those working remotely, a study desk and complimentary Wi-Fi are provided.

Impress with your culinary skills in the adjoining open-plan kitchen or bond over a round of cocktails with your loved ones at the walnut-coloured dining table. The kitchen is well-equipped, complete with granite countertops and modern cabinetry. It's stocked with essentials like sugar, tea, coffee, and granola for a kickstart start to your mornings. An oven, refrigerator, microwave and dishware are available for your convenience.

Retire to your private oasis, where snug furnishing meets dewy white decor. The bedroom is set to the rear of the apartment, creating a quiet setting for a restful night's sleep. It features a double-sized bed and picture window — with a relaxed, sumptuous theme. There's also an en-suite bathroom kitted out with towels and premium toiletries.

Enjoy the apartment's prime location and experience the canvas of history, culture and culinary delights that London has to offer. There's something here for everyone.

Location & Local Information

London is a treasure trove of delectable cuisines, incredible views and thrilling adventures. From the iconic Financial District to the inviting allure of East London, you're guaranteed an unforgettable time.

A two-minute walk takes you to Angel Tube Station, from where you can easily access the other regions of the city via its well-connected underground network. Angel is a lively shopping and entertainment complex offering a slew of cocktails, bars, British pubs and fantastic restaurants. The charming Chapel Market remains popular for stalls selling fresh produce, household items and fashion wear. If that's not enough, head to Angel Central for its range of retail brands.

Go on morning strolls along Regent's Canal, one of London's most picturesque walking trails. Enjoy afternoons of tranquillity in Islington Green, boasting trees dating back to 1808.

Spend your evenings uncovering the colourful dining spots of Exmouth Market, nestled a short distance away. You'll also find a wide variety of boutique shops that will keep you entertained for hours. Exmouth Market is known for its lively, hipster atmosphere and range of craft beer pubs.

Next, take a trip to Camden Passage, a quaint historic street nestled alongside Upper Street in Islington — and en route to Angel Station. Spend time exploring charming shops, tucked-away cafes and a host of antique markets. No cars are allowed here, making it ideal for pedestrians to walk around.

Experience live music and gigs at Union Chapel, a majestic church also known for hosting charity events for the homeless. Its intricate Victorian Gothic architecture and high-quality acoustics make it a fantastic venue for music shows.
