

Palazzo Gioiello

Region: Venice Sleeps: 4

Overview

Nestled discreetly behind the 15th-century Gothic Palazzo Trevisan Degli Ulivi garden wall, overlooking the charming Zattere canal-side promenade in Dorsoduro, Palazzo Gioiello offers an enchanting holiday home.

In perfect harmony with its historic surroundings, Palazzo Gioiello offers a haven of tranquillity with its own private south-facing courtyard garden. This ground-floor apartment, designed to accommodate up to four guests, invites you to indulge in luxurious air-conditioned comfort within what can only be described as a true gem of a property.

Secluded yet prominently placed near the renowned Church of 'I Gesuati,' Palazzo Gioiello can be accessed through a discreet arched double doorway directly from the Zattere. Stepping into its charming secret garden feels like stepping into a different world—a paved sanctuary adorned with raised flower beds and small trees, complete with an ancient stone well-head, providing an idyllic retreat.

The open-plan living area boasts two sets of French doors that seamlessly integrate the garden into the space, creating a refreshing indoor-outdoor ambience during the balmy summer months. With elegant and inviting interiors featuring white-beamed ceilings, polished 'marmorino' walls, and exquisite Tuscan floor tiling, the room exudes a sense of timeless charm. This space showcases tasteful period pieces, original artworks, a fully equipped all-white kitchen with an integrated dining table for four, and a sumptuously furnished sitting area with plush upholstered club chairs and a sofa.

Complementing the living area is a peaceful double bedroom with carefully curated furnishings, offering the flexibility of a double bed or twin beds as per your preference. A windowed partition ensures privacy, leading to an ensuite bathroom adorned with Egyptian stone fittings and calming sage-green polished plaster walls. Adjacent to the living area, the master bedroom offers a haven of tranquillity with a built-in double bed, twin upholstered chairs, and an ensuite bathroom boasting a bathtub and shower. Glazed French doors open onto the garden, mirroring the main entrance of Palazzo Gioiello.

Situated a mere step away from captivating canal views towards the Giudecca island and within minutes of the Accademia Bridge and Galleries as well as the Peggy Guggenheim Collection along the Grand Canal. Experience the allure of Palazzo Gioiello—a haven of elegance and comfort amidst the timeless beauty of Venice's Dorsoduro.
