

Villa Saota

Region: Clifton Sleeps: 12

Overview

Designed by leading architectural firm Saota and suspended over the highest point in Clifton, Cape Town, Villa Saota stands as a beacon of coastal glamour. This six-bedroom estate commodiously accommodates up to 12 guests in an unparalleled position on South Africa's Atlantic seaboard.

As you step into the vast living area, guests are greeted by an airy ambience provided by stunningly high ceilings and an open ocean-facing façade inviting floods of natural light. Adorned with tasteful furnishings and panoramic views, this space is nothing short of breathtaking. The open-plan design seamlessly connects the living room to the dining area, where a grand dining table awaits, creating a perfect setting for indulgent meals and lively conversations which last long into the night.

The fully equipped kitchen allows culinary enthusiasts to channel their inner chef whether they're tossing together a summer salad or preparing a holiday feast for family and friends. Modern appliances, ample counter space, and ready access to interior and al fresco dining areas makes this kitchen a gourmet go-to.

Villa Saota boasts six individually styled bedrooms, each with their own ensuite bathrooms and thoughtfully designed to provide a unique and comfortable haven. The master suite is a particularly regal retreat, featuring a king-sized bed draped in luxurious linens, lounge area, private bar, ensuite bathroom with soaking tub, and a private balcony. The remaining five bedrooms are a harmonious blend of sophistication and relaxation, exuding a sense of airiness and tranquillity.

Outside, the villa reveals its true splendour with a lush garden, a sparkling infinity pool, and multiple lounging areas. Whether you choose to bask in the South African sun, take a refreshing dip, or dine al fresco, the outdoor spaces are designed to elevate your holiday experience. What is more, thanks to a sauna, steam room and private gym, there is ample opportunity to break a sweat before taking that refreshing dive.

Villa Saota is not just a holiday home, it's a symphony of opulence, comfort, and natural beauty, promising an idyllic retreat for you and your guests to create cherished memories in the heart of Cape Town.
