

Apartment Aurora

Region: Florence Sleeps: 8

Overview

Nestled within the heart of Florence, the captivating Apartment Aurora is a harmonious blend of past and present, offering a captivating invitation to explore the city's tapestry of history and culture. Florence, a city that masterfully weaves the threads of time together, lures you into its rich heritage, where art, history, and culinary delights intertwine along its storied avenues.

Boasting five exquisite bedrooms, each adorned with a queen-sized bed and an ensuite bathroom graced by the modern convenience of a shower, Apartment Aurora harmoniously merges historic charm with contemporary comfort. The rooms, adorned with regal frescoes upon their ceilings, showcase the restoration's careful attention to preserving the revered "old Florentine atmosphere," while the sleek, minimalist furnishings that inhabit every space breathe life and luminosity into the apartment.

The living spaces will enchant with their duality, offering a refined formal lounge for sophisticated gatherings and a second retreat that embraces relaxation, complete with a dedicated television area. The heart of this elegant residence beats within the spacious eat-in kitchen, where guests can craft their culinary adventures or summon the skills of a hired chef. A laundry area, including a washer and dryer, is an added convenience.

The apartment's inner courtyard offers a sanctuary from the city's bustle. The courtyard is adorned with a vertical garden, an oasis for morning coffees or evening libations after a day's exploration.

Located within an authentic 15th-century palazzo, this first-floor sanctuary accommodates up to ten guests and is accessible via an elevator. The central location allows guests to stroll to Florence's iconic sites. At the same time, the expert concierge service opens doors to guided tours of the surrounding picturesque countryside, visits to Chianti's vineyards, or explorations of enchanting towns such as Siena, San Gimignano, Lucca, and Pisa.

Apartment Aurora is more than an accommodation; it is a passage into Florence's enthralling narrative, where the past reverberates in every stone and the present dances in vibrant harmony.
