

Apartment Coutelot

Region: Courchevel Sleeps: 12

Overview

We dare you not to fall in love with Apartment Coutelot. It's hard not to fall head over hills for this decadent penthouse located in the Isard residence in the very heart of the pretty Courchevel Village. Due to your proximity to the slopes, you can enjoy the combination of dramatic, vigorous and gentle skiing opportunities available whilst also enjoying retreating to your elegant and inviting home.

Although the area is famed for its many skiing opportunities, you might prefer to enjoy the tranquil side of this beautiful part of the world: enjoying the gourmet food scene, meandering around the picturesque villages, and sampling gooey fondue.

From your penthouse located on the fourth floor, you'll be able to see stunning panoramic views of Courchevel, including its vibrant forests, quaint woodland and snow-capped mountains. The property itself runs across two levels and is able to accommodate 12 people, making it ideal for a gathering of friends or a huge family trip. With four bedrooms, two of which contain en suites, and two children's bedrooms, this is the perfect place to make spectacular memories.

The piece de resistance may very well be the grand living area, located beneath a wooden roof, which creates height in the centre of the room. You'll find that the kitchen, dining room, TV lounge and living room are all open to one another but are bounded by the high ceilings, which lends a sense of compartmentalisation to the space. You can enjoy indulgent views out on the south-facing terrace, where you can take in panoramas of the valley and mountains. Snuggle up on the sofa with the fire on, enjoying some champagne and conversation or a good book. Tuck into big communal dinners at the epic dining table complete with quirky modern light fixtures, and transport yourself into the 21st century in the spick and span all-white and fully kitted out kitchen.

The property is clad in wood but enhanced with modern furniture and lighting, which creates a beautiful blend of comfort and class. There's understated opulence here. You can enjoy an elevated sense of living while feeling right at home.

A self-catering space, you can make use of the vast communal areas to try your hand at local delicacies which are infused with French flair and spend time together with your loved ones.

There's a touch of luxury that runs through this property, offset by the vintage impact of the wood and low-hanging beams. Plush velvet carpets, modern sofas and tasteful overhead lighting all create a vibrant space.

The property itself is on the slopes, making it ideal for getting out and about skiing, but it's also close enough to shops and services, making it a practical place to be. It serves as a great base camp whether you want to ski, spend time at the Aquamotion aquatic centre, or get busy exploring the local village.

Welcome to the airy brilliance and warm reassurance of Apartment Coutilot.

What we love

- What's not to love about this place? The terrace was beyond beautiful, the living space was just charming. We loved sitting by the fire, eating dinner at the dining table and snuggling up in bed. Everything was perfect.
- I loved the welcome bottle of champagne. We took it straight to the terrace and took in those gorgeous views.
- We were so close to everything. Going skiing and getting everything, we needed was easy. But when you looked out of the window, it felt like being in a snow globe far away from everything. So, the balance was ideal.
- I really appreciated the little things, the board games, the boots heater. I so quickly felt at home and didn't want to leave.

What you should know...

- Courchevel flaunts a radiant apres-ski scene, but it's not renowned for its nightlife. If that's your preference, you may want to consider another resort. But you can have plenty of fun in your apartment!

- If travelling with babies or infants, you can notify the property in advance to ensure that highchairs and baby cots can be provided and set up before you arrive.
