Location & Local Information

You're based in the very centre of Courchivel, a true skiers paradise. This is an ideal location, rendering you in close proximity to everything you could need in this most dazzling part of the world. The area is home to one of the world's most popular ski resorts, ideal for both beginners and hardened veterans. The diverse terrain ensures that skiers can enjoy a range of versatile slopes, from those that border on the gentle to those ideally suited to those with more devil-may-care temperaments.

People are drawn to the area for two key reasons – a sense of adventure and the ability to unwind in a winter wonderland that conveys an eternal sense of Christmas. Have you ever wondered what it might be like to live in a Hallmark film? Wonder no more.

Connected to several major airports, you can easily arrive from Lyon, Geneva, Chambéry or Grenoble within three hours, and from the airport, there is a vast array of transport options available to you, including a private taxi, rental service and shuttle service.

The ravishing natural beauty you'll find here is hard to articulate and has to be seen to be believed. The Alps are, of course, a truly beguiling wonder; the woods are enchanting, and the small villages beam with life and tradition. There's something truly idyllic about this area, and if you let it, it can transport you away from the troubles of the wider world.

You're 200 m from TC Ariondaz, the nearest ski lift, and 200 m from the closest slope, Moriond. It's the same distance to the nearest ski school where you can familiarise yourself with the equipment and techniques required. Many may come here to ski, but it's not all the area has to offer, so if skiing doesn't factor into your to-do list, you'll find plenty more to entertain you.

Adrenaline junkies may enjoy paragliding amongst the peaks for spellbinding views of the vast natural beauty here. Others may long to explore the mountain by horse-drawn sleigh – a very traditional method of transport. Others still may enjoy spending time in the village, with its many shops and its compelling atmosphere.

If the way to your heart is through your stomach, enjoy the exciting foodie scene. There's a real French flair here, so ensure that you tuck into golden pastries, grab a hot chocolate and enjoy a gourmet dining experience.

What we love

- What can we say? This was just divine. Our private outdoor hot tub was just the best thing ever. We were in there day and night. It was especially appreciated after a day spent skiing.
- The views were just breath-taking. It felt like living in a snow globe.
- The location was perfect. We were close to everything we needed. But we also felt like we were in our own little world.
- I loved the art throughout the house. Bears and polar bears everywhere!
- This place was just so pretty. We couldn't have asked for more.

What you should know...

- If you're pursuing roaring nightlife, Courchevel may not be quite the right fit. Although it has a flourishing apres-ski scene, it's not infamous for nightlife.
- You might not consider sunscreen and skiing would factor into the same sentence, but the sun can catch you out here. Make sure to pack a suitable sunscreen and sunglasses.
- Layers, layers, layers! That's the key to dressing in the mountains!
