

Casa Eusebio

Region: Silver Coast Sleeps: 5

Overview

Nestled in the tranquil village of Cela, near the picturesque west coast of Portugal and the Atlantic Ocean, Casa Eusebio is a holiday home of comfort and countryside charm. This single-storey villa has one hundred and five square meters of contemporary living space and offers a serene retreat for up to five guests within its extensive shared grounds.

The ground floor of Casa Eusebio welcomes visitors with an open-plan living space and doors leading to the private terrace and lush gardens. A cosy seating area invites relaxation, featuring two sofas and a flat-screen television, complemented by the warmth of an enclosed wood-burning fire, for those cooler evenings. The six-seater dining set overlooks the verdant surroundings, creating a perfect backdrop for shared meals. The fully fitted pine kitchen is fully equipped with modern amenities, including an oven and hob, microwave, fridge freezer, dishwasher, and a convenient washing machine.

The ground floor is home to two beautifully appointed bedrooms. The master bedroom has a double bed, fitted wardrobes, a funky black and silver ensuite shower room, and access to the garden. The second bedroom has two single beds, fitted wardrobes, and a cot. A well-appointed bathroom completes the ground floor layout, featuring a bath, shower, hand basin, bidet, WC, and fitted cupboards.

Take the stairs to the upper floor, where there is an open gallery with a sloping ceiling and a parquet floor. This airy space has a single-day bed, a comfortable bean bag, a desk and chair, and well-stocked bookshelves. The exterior of Casa Eusebio has a private patio terrace with a dining set and BBQ, perfect for some alfresco feasts. Relax on the sun loungers strategically positioned on the adjacent lawn. The villa shares an extensive seven thousand square metres of fenced-in grounds with one other property. The gardens are populated by mature shady trees, lush green lawns, and flowering shrubs and bushes in season.

Facilities include complimentary Wi-Fi and air conditioning, a must-have morning coffee machine, and bicycles for exploring the idyllic surroundings. With electric gates ensuring privacy and baby amenities catering to families, Casa Eusebio promises a delightful escape for those seeking a contemporary haven in the heart of Portugal's natural beauty.

Location & Local Information

Casa Eusebio can be found in the picturesque village of Cela, in the heart of the countryside, near the Atlantic Coast of west Portugal. The house is approximately eighty-five kilometres from the nearest international airport of Lisbon Portela. Within walking distance, the village is home to minimarts for holiday provisions and welcoming bars and restaurants.

Take a walk in nature and discover the local flora and fauna on well-trodden trails. Seek sanctuary in the nearby medieval Alcobaca Monastery, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Visit a vineyard and take a bottle or two home with you.

The nearest beach is just seven kilometres from the holiday hot spot resort of Nazare; with an organised sandy beach and famous big waves, it attracts surfers from all over the world. Swim and snorkel in the crystal clear waters, or try your hand at jet skiing. A more leisurely way to spend the day is a relaxing boat cruise around the coast. Walk to the iconic Nazare lighthouse before a stroll around the historic old town of O Sitio, which is located on a cliff overlooking the beach. Visit the Nossa Senhora de Nazare Sanctuary, take the funicular railway to the top of the town, browse the market for souvenirs, and dine in seafront restaurants on the local delicacies of bacalhau and caldeirada.

What we love

- We love the uniquely decorated bathrooms at Casa Eusebio, especially the funky monochrome black and white squared ensuite shower room.
- The bedrooms at Casa Eusebio are beautifully appointed, dressed in fine linens, and elegantly decorated.
- We love the extensive grounds and gardens of Casa Eusebio. Taking a walk in nature before breakfast or as the sun sets is just magical.
- Casa Eusebio sits in the heart of the countryside, with the lively resort of Nazare just a few kilometres away, where you can experience the thrill of the exhilarating Atlantic surf.

What you should know...

- Casa Eusebio shares the extensive 7000m<sup>2</sup> grounds with one other holiday home; the garden is big enough not to bump into your neighbours or take it as an opportunity to make new friends.
- The nearest beach is a 7-kilometre drive away; we recommend hiring a car to see all the sights you'd like to see
- The third bedroom has a low ceiling and a convertible day bed, suitable for an older child or teenager.
