

Apartment Creux Noir

Region: Courchevel Sleeps: 8

Overview

Nestled at the summit of the Portes de Courchevel residence, Apartment Creux Noir is a luxurious duplex chalet apartment that redefines mountain living. Its privileged location in the heart of Courchevel 1850 places this world-renowned Alpine resort's essence at your doorstep. Ski slopes, chic boutiques, and gourmet restaurants are mere steps away, making it the ideal retreat for winter enthusiasts and those who appreciate the finer things in life.

This stunning 135-square-metre haven, adorned with chic and refined decor, seamlessly marries the noble Alpine heritage with the warmth of the mountains. As you enter the grand main room, you'll be greeted by a soaring ceiling and a breathtaking panoramic view. Sunlight floods through the large windows, illuminating the space, while a central fireplace invites you to cosy up on winter evenings. A second, more intimate living room provides an additional space to unwind and create cherished memories.

The apartment's fully equipped kitchen features a central island that doubles as a dining table and is fitted with ceramic hobs, a coffee machine, a dishwasher, a freezer, and a fridge for all your culinary needs.

When it's time to retire for the night, you'll find solace in one of the four bright and spacious en suite bedrooms. Each bedroom boasts its balcony, where you can breathe in the crisp mountain air and soak in the awe-inspiring views of the ski slopes and snow-covered peaks.

Your stay at Apartment Creux Noir comes complete with modern amenities. A ski locker and covered parking space ensure your gear is stored safely and your vehicle remains sheltered from the elements, while elevator access makes moving about the duplex effortless. The chalet apartment also offers a range of multimedia options, including a DVD player and Blu-ray player for entertainment, a television for leisurely viewing, and WiFi to stay connected.

If you need more than these amenities, you also have exclusive access to the private spa, ski room, and ski shop at the nearby Mascara residence, a mere 20 metres from the Portes de Courchevel. In the heart of the renowned 3 Valleys ski area, Courchevel is a destination where skiing, strolls, relaxation, and gastronomy converge to create an unforgettable Alpine experience. Apartment Creux Noir is the quintessential base for mountain adventures, offering an opulent retreat with unrivalled mountain views.

Location & Local Information

Apartment Creux Noir in Courchevel 1850 is more than just an apartment; it's an idyllic gateway to an Alpine paradise, combining unrivalled luxury, exceptional skiing, gourmet delights, and outdoor adventures. It's a location that effortlessly marries the beauty of the mountains with the opulence of a world-class resort, ensuring that your stay in the French Alps is nothing short of extraordinary.

This charming chalet apartment is perched on the top floor of the Portes de Courchevel residence, affording guests an unparalleled ski-in-ski-out experience where the slopes are literally at your doorstep. The convenience is second to none, ensuring a seamless transition from the cosy embrace of your mountain retreat to the pristine slopes.

But Courchevel 1850 offers much more than just world-class skiing. The area is a playground for winter sports enthusiasts, with many amenities and attractions catering to all interests. A stay at Apartment Creux Noir grants you exclusive access to the Mascara residence's private spa, where you can relax and rejuvenate after an exhilarating day on the slopes. The ski room and ski shop, a mere 20 metres from the Portes de Courchevel, make outfitting yourself for a day of skiing or snowboarding a breeze.

For those who appreciate the art of gourmet dining, Courchevel 1850 boasts a dazzling culinary scene. The finest restaurants and eateries are dotted throughout the resort, serving an array of delectable cuisine, from traditional Savoyard specialities to international dishes crafted by renowned chefs. And, of course, the après-ski scene is legendary, with lively bars and lounges offering the perfect setting for socialising and unwinding.

If retail therapy is your passion, you'll be delighted to explore the upscale boutiques and designer stores that line the streets of Courchevel 1850. From luxury fashion to exquisite jewellery, you'll find the perfect gifts or souvenirs to commemorate your mountain retreat.

Beyond the charming village itself, the surrounding Three Valleys ski area offers endless opportunities for exploration. Courchevel is interconnected with Meribel, Val Thorens, and other neighbouring resorts, forming the largest ski area in the world. The vast network of slopes and trails is a paradise for skiers and snowboarders of all skill levels.

In the warmer months, the Alps come alive with hiking and mountain biking trails and the scenic beauty of the Vanoise National Park. Courchevel transforms into a green paradise, inviting outdoor enthusiasts to explore the breathtaking landscapes and partake in paragliding, horseback riding, and golf.
