

Madeira Bello

Region: Funchal Sleeps: 4 - 10

Overview

Nestled atop a soaring cliff 142 meters above the Garajau Natural Sea Reserve, Madeira Bello offers an unparalleled retreat in the heart of nature. This spacious villa boasts an uninterrupted 180° view, stretching across the vast expanse of the Atlantic Ocean, with the rugged Desertas Islands to the east and the renowned Statue of Christ in Garajau to the west. The villa's prime location provides a rare opportunity to witness the beauty of indigenous birds, rare fish, and even Mediterranean monk seals in their natural habitat.

This splendid abode is graced with four double bedrooms on the upper floor, three of which open onto a balcony, allowing guests to immerse themselves in the panoramic vista. The master bedroom features a lavish en suite bathroom with a Jacuzzi bathtub, ensuring a tranquil retreat. An additional en suite bedroom and a third bathroom cater to the comfort of guests staying in the remaining rooms.

On the lower floor, a generously sized living room welcomes with its plush leather sofas, creating a cosy atmosphere for relaxation. Adjacent to the living area is a dining space and a fully equipped kitchen, perfect for preparing family meals. The villa offers the unique delight of a small kidney-shaped pool, a rare gem in Madeira, providing a refreshing oasis where guests can bask in the beauty of the surrounding landscape.
