

Villa Shala

Region: Southern Coast Sleeps: 14 - 18

Overview

Listed as one of the top ten luxury villas in the world by The Times, Villa Shala is, without a doubt, a fantastic home for those wishing to visit Sri Lanka. This stunning, sophisticated home sits paces away from the crashing waves of the Indian Ocean and is staffed by a fantastic team who are on hand to ensure you have the perfect trip.

Sleeping up to eighteen guests, this villa is ideally suited to a larger family or group of friends who want space and privacy. The villa is situated in lush tropical gardens filled with vibrant florals and towering palm trees. This private haven has been constructed from the finest materials by skilled local artisans to create an elegant space filled with antique furnishings and original artwork. Everything here works harmoniously to create a warm and welcoming home that looks out over the leafy surroundings and the sea.

The vast main villa is set over two floors and has all the space needed for a larger party. The living room offers comfortable sofas and day beds where you chat and unwind together and leads to a lovely breakfast room, where cabinets of blue and white china stand ready for the morning breakfast service. On top of these more formal spaces is a children's TV room and a large cinema room where you can get the popcorn out and watch your favourite movies comfortably.

The bedrooms at Villa Shala are bright and airy and boast access to a wraparound veranda or a private terrace. With super-king-sized beds and ensuite bathrooms, you are assured of a restful night's sleep here. Six gorgeous bedrooms are located within the main villa on the first floor, including the brilliant bunk room where the kids can enjoy a sleepover every night under the watchful eye of a nanny who can utilise one of the larger beds if needed. Outdoors, one more bedroom, the Garden Room, is tucked away in the oasis-like grounds. This room is a romantic retreat for a couple.

The kitchen here is well-equipped, and it is here that the catering team, led by a highly-regarded local chef, will prepare dishes throughout the day. When you book your stay, you can select menus depending on your preferences and dietary requirements. Some days, you may wish to take all of your meals at Villa Shala, while others may opt to go out to a restaurant. Whatever you wish, this can be accommodated. The menus here are delicious and varied, from breakfast tables brimming with regional dishes and British staples to lunch and dinner menus made up of Sri Lankan cuisine and sumptuous international dishes. One night you could be tucking into a seafood feast; the next, you could be sampling some of Sri Lanka's tastiest street food. There are even vegan menus and children's menus on offer. In addition to the kitchen staff, the home boasts a manager, cleaning and waiting staff, while yogis, masseurs and therapists can be booked on request.

Outdoors, the home is enveloped by a breathtaking landscaped garden filled with palm trees, lawned areas and colourful florals. Here, you can find the large swimming pool surrounded by sun loungers and hammocks and even a 20-metre water slide with its own pool! Whether you wish to dine al-fresco on the atmospheric terrace, play a game of cricket or practice yoga with a local teacher, this space is yours to do as you wish for the duration of your trip. With fenced grounds and 24-hour security, you can feel safe and relaxed as you unwind here.

If you can bring yourself to leave Villa Shala, you will be happy to learn that you are just a stone's throw away from the nearest sandy beach, just at the end of the garden. There are countless beaches within easy reach of the villa, including Hiriketiya Bay, one of the best on the island.

On top of the postcard-worthy beaches, within proximity to the villa, you can visit Buddhist temples, charming villages and protected parkland. Bustling towns with historic attractions and traditional markets are also easily accessed by car.

Location & Local Information

Sri Lanka is a beautiful place for a holiday, and with its temples, lively cities, elephants and delicious street food, the Southern Province has everything you could wish for. Villa Shala is well-situated for lazy beach days or trips to nearby towns and attractions.

There is so much to do at Villa Shala, within the house and the expansive grounds, that you can spend many days simply relaxing in the home's tranquil setting with your nearest and dearest. Here, you can soak up the sun in the splendid garden, swim in the pool, practice yoga, play a round of cricket on the lawn and end the day with a delicious meal and a film in the cinema room. The house and garden are perfectly equipped for family life, and the staff are on hand to ensure everything goes smoothly.

When you wish to go out and see some of your surroundings, the nearest beach is visible from the house. Within a few steps, you can find yourself lounging on the sand and swimming in the blue Indian Ocean. Sri Lanka is known for its incredible beaches, and there are plenty more that you can visit nearby, including Hiriketiya Bay, one of the best beaches on the island. Hiriketiya Bay is a horse-shoe-shaped bay with white sand, which attracts everyone from sun-bathers to surfers, and is just 5km away from the villa!

If you would like to step off the usual tourist trails and get to know authentic Sri Lanka, you could visit one of the small local villages or lively towns, such as Matara, which is 17km away. Matara is a coastal town with secluded beaches like Polhena Beach to one side and the town centre to the other. Here, you can wander around the historic streets, visit the famous Star Fort and shop at the town's brilliant market for goods such as clothing, souvenirs, and fresh fruits. If you have overindulged on the street food, you can walk off your lunch on a coastal walk to the Dondra Head Lighthouse, which offers panoramic views. If you are interested in spirituality, you may also enjoy a trip to the Buddhist Monastery, home to 140 monks. The monks welcome visitors who wish to learn more about Theravada Buddhist teachings, spirituality and meditation.

A little further out is the city of Galle, the capital of the Southern Province. Galle is a fantastic place to visit and is made up of the old town and a newer area packed with shops, restaurants and galleries. The city is a melting pot of cultures, cuisines and architecture because the Portuguese settled it and then colonised by the Dutch and the British. The main attraction of Galle is the UNESCO-listed Galle Fort; this is the old town, which is enclosed by thick, defensive walls and was fortified by Dutch settlers. On your visit, you can wander around the pretty cobbled streets of the old towns, shop in the boutiques and look out for historic churches, prisons and the imposing lighthouse.

Sri Lanka has much more on offer, depending on your interests. You can go on safari, head out on a boat trip, visit ornate temples and explore tea plantations.
