

Brenda House

Region: Suffolk Sleeps: 1 - 6

Overview

Nestled in the tranquil Suffolk countryside, Brenda House stands as a splendidly renovated Victorian schoolhouse, embodying the essence of an idyllic staycation. Set amidst the peaceful surroundings of Long Melford, this charming residence offers an exquisite retreat for travellers keen on discovering the beauty of Suffolk.

Upon entering through the front door, guests are greeted by a warm and inviting atmosphere. The ground floor features a comfortable bedroom adorned with twin single beds, complemented by a rustic wood burner, providing a cosy sanctuary during winter nights. Ascending to the upper floor, guests are welcomed into a master bedroom furnished with a luxurious super-king-sized bed, complete with a heated blanket for added comfort. The room boasts fitted wardrobes and a unique "maxi-bar" unit, equipped with a drinks fridge and entertainment amenities. Across the hall, the third bedroom offers a king-size bed, fitted wardrobes, and picturesque views of the surrounding Suffolk fields.

The living spaces, located in the new extension at the rear of the property, provide a luminous and spacious area for socialising. The well-appointed kitchen boasts marble worktops, a large induction range cooker, a Nespresso coffee maker, and a Smeg fridge/freezer. French doors open onto the terrace, where a large gas Weber BBQ awaits, perfect for indulging in al-fresco dining. The living room corner sofa offers a comfortable spot by the fireplace, ideal for relaxing on winter evenings or enjoying movies on the 65" Samsung smart TV with surround sound system.

What we love

- Brenda House offers a picturesque retreat for families, providing a cosy haven with three comfortable bedrooms, a spacious living area, and a 0.5-acre garden for children to play and explore amidst the Suffolk countryside
- With a 65" Samsung smart TV, state-of-the-art surround sound system, and a selection of board games, the living area becomes an entertainment hub where families can enjoy movie nights and quality time together, rain or shine
- The property's expansive garden and proximity to nature trails invite families to embrace the great outdoors. Children can revel in the freedom of the lush green space, fostering a love for nature and unforgettable outdoor adventures

What you should know...

- While the spacious garden is a delightful feature, parents should supervise children closely, as there may be natural hazards such as uneven terrain, plants, or wildlife, ensuring their safety during outdoor activities
- The property boasts charming wood-burning stoves, providing warmth and atmosphere. Guests should exercise caution, especially with young children, to prevent accidental burns or injuries when the stoves are in use
- The property is located near peaceful countryside roads. Guests with children should be mindful of road safety and supervise them when playing outdoors to prevent any accidental encounters with passing vehicles, ensuring a safe and enjoyable stay
