Overview

The most discerning of Francophiles can embrace the serene ambience of this beautiful and unique château set in a traditional Gard village in the south of France, within half an hour of Le Pont du Gard and only 26km from the historic city of Avignon.

As you step into this special home it feels like southern France of a bygone era. Once a 16th century hunting lodge, it fell into disrepair in the mid-1900s before being rescued by a famous Parisian who was a plastic surgeon to the stars! It's most recent owners fell in love with the château's warm energy and incredible beauty.

Nowadays the château and its cottages can be rented exclusively as an idyllic place to stay in southern France, the perfect way to experience the authenticity of this region. Artwork, tapestries, antiques and high-end furnishings can be found across the inviting living and dining spaces alongside true character and spirit. Outside, the stone bassin-style swimming pool is a restful spot for relaxing amongst the statues, summer roses and jasmine.

Sleeping up to 16 guests, there are nine gorgeous bedrooms to choose from including four across three pretty cottages alongside a spacious château suite with private access and four other bedrooms in the main part of the château. The huge air-conditioned master bedroom on the second floor is especially stunning with its emperor-sized bed, sunken bath for two and stone terrace ideal for sunbathing. Most bedrooms have their own bathroom and guests can expect Indian cotton bedlinen and high quality mattresses.

How enchanting to be able to stroll down to the heart of the village with its bakery, épicerie, pharmacy and café-restaurant with tables set out beneath the shady trees. Try the excellent local wine here (nearby wine areas include Laudun, Lirac and Tavel) and soak up the charm of this small village with a rich heritage. Energetic guests can follow the steep cobbled path up to the 12th century castle ruins on the hill overlooking the village.

Explore the glorious landscapes of Côtes-du-Rhône vineyards, oak forests, characterful villages and historic sites. The twice-weekly market in Uzès takes place amongst the century-old plane trees of Place aux Herbes whilst the Saturday morning brocante in Villeneuve-lès-Avignon is a must for antique lovers. Then there's the wineries of Châteauneuf-du-Pape, the wonderfully preserved Roman sites in Nimes and the UNESCO World Heritage sites of Avignon.

Perhaps you would prefer to spend lazier days picnicking by the Gard River, kayaking beneath Le Pont du Gard, pottering around local market towns and enjoying gastronomic meals in atmospheric restaurants. However you spend your time, it is a truly magical experience staying at Le Château Enchanteur.

Location & Local Information

In an idyllic setting, Le Château Enchanteur is on the edge of a small pretty village within easy reach of Le Pont du Gard, Uzès and Avignon. Across this area you will find beautiful landscapes of Côtes-du-Rhône vineyards, verdant hills, oak forests, characterful villages and a wealth of historic sites. As well as appealing to keen historians, this region is popular with wine enthusiasts, gourmands, market lovers, hikers and cyclists.

Stroll to the village centre with its bakery, tabac, épicerie food store and café-restaurant where you can dine amongst locals as you sit out beneath the shady sycamore trees. Here you are off the beaten track, away from hordes of tourists, yet the village is a true hidden gem with old stone houses, a 19th century fountain and remarkable vistas of the 12th century château ruins on the hill overlooking the village. A steep cobbled path takes you up to the castle ruins!

Within a short drive you will find further restaurants and shops in the larger wine-making village Laudun-l'Ardoise (6km), home to a Monday morning market and surrounding vineyards producing highly regarded AOC Côtes-du-Rhône wine. Find time to visit the Roman remains at Camp de César and the 19th century Aqueduc de Balouviere.

Alongside local Côtes-du-Rhône vineyards (including the wines of Lirac and Tavel) head towards Châteauneuf-du-Pape (22km) for some of France's finest wineries in the Rhône valley. Discover delightful markets – there are two especially wonderful markets in nearby Uzès (23km) at the very charming Place aux Herbes on a Wednesday and Saturday morning, a great way to appreciate the delicious produce of this region. Uzès' market square is famous for its ancient shady plane trees, the perfect spot for a coffee before wandering around this picturesque historic town.

Avignon (26km) is also loved for its historic architecture (including two UNESCO World Heritage sites, Le Palais des Papes and Le Pont d'Avignon), wine-bars and bustling markets whilst antique lovers will adore the Saturday morning brocante in Villeneuve-lès-Avignon, one of the most famous in southern France.

Le Pont du Gard is another highlight of this part of southern France, perfect for riverside picnics, paddling and even canoeing beneath the incredible Roman aqueduct. The wonderful city of Nîmes (46km) is also home to some of France's most beautifully preserved monuments including Maison Carrée and the city's Roman amphitheatre.
