

Chalet Chapelets

Region: Courchevel Sleeps: 10

Overview

Ideally located in the heart of Courchevel Village's sought-after Brigues district, Chalet Chapelets stands as an exquisite example of traditional mountain construction. The chalet, created with a blend of rustic old wood, exudes a profound sense of warmth and tranquillity that offers a perfect escape from the modern world, allowing guests to immerse themselves in its natural beauty.

On the chalet's first floor, you'll discover a spacious and inviting living area where a wood fireplace and sumptuous seating take centre stage. As you recline on the plush furnishings, you can gaze through the large windows at the stunning alpine views, creating a serene ambience that perfectly complements your mountain retreat.

Adjacent to the living space, a fully equipped kitchen beckons for culinary adventures. Here, guests can whip up their favourite dishes, embracing the art of mountain cuisine. A fondue machine, raclette machine, Nespresso coffee maker, oven, toaster, and freezer are all at your disposal, making it easy to create hearty meals for the whole family.

The chalet offers a total of five bedrooms, with four of them boasting ensuite bathrooms, while the master bedroom provides the ultimate retreat. The rooms are adorned with charming alpine decor and furnishings that add to the cosy atmosphere.

The chalet's practicality for winter sports enthusiasts is truly remarkable. A dedicated ski room, just a few steps from the ski slopes, provides ample space for your equipment and even includes boot heaters to keep your gear warm, ensuring you're always ready for your next alpine adventure. The convenience of Chalet Chapelets extends to the functional aspects of your stay. A garage ensures your vehicle remains protected from frost and adverse weather conditions, eliminating the need for tedious windshield scraping. Additionally, there's a parking space for extra convenience.
