Location & Local Information

Ideally situated in a residential area of the seaside resort town, Villa Ensoleillée is close to a bevy of conveniences, including a supermarket, shops, restaurants and the sandy beach (all within 5-minutes drive).

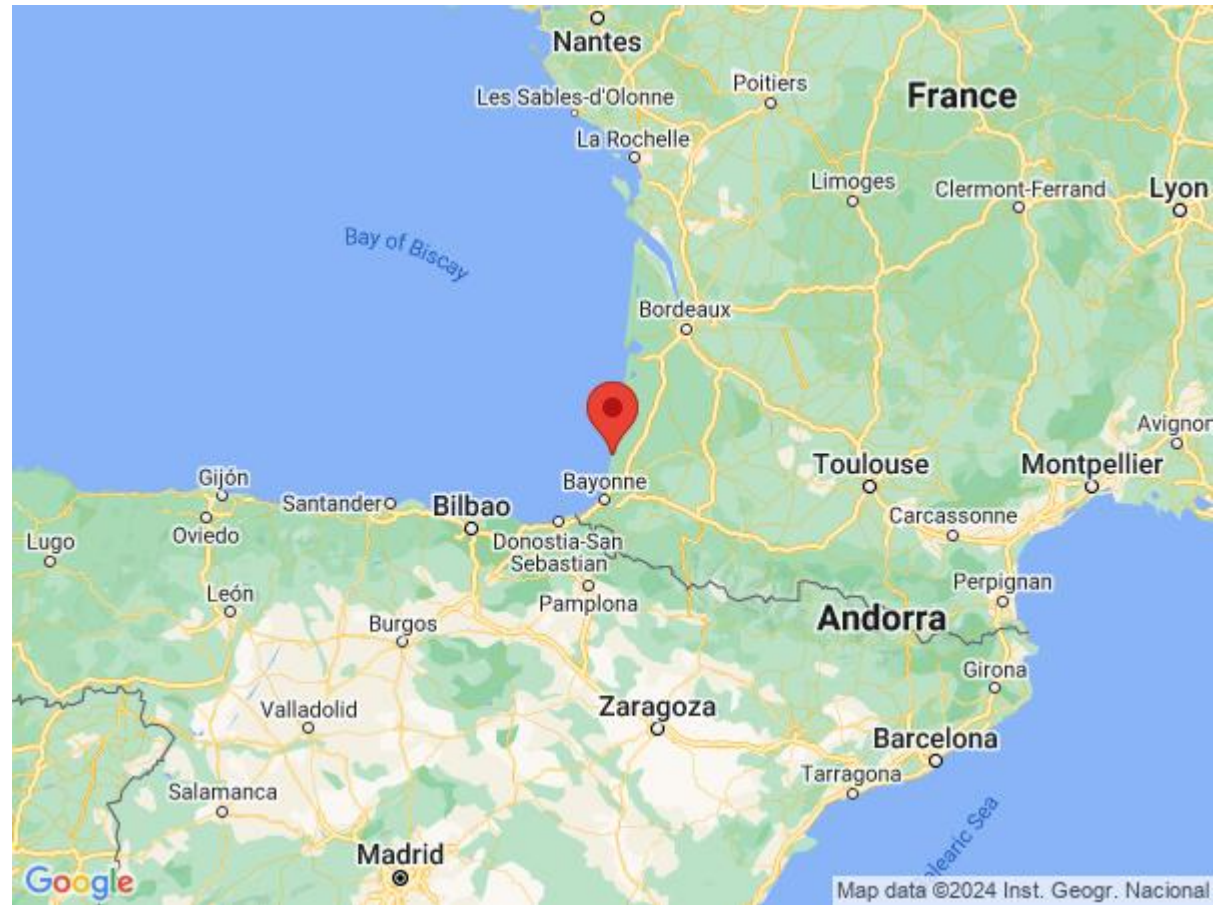

France's long Atlantic coast boasts long beaches of fine sand that is ideal for sunbathing, surfing and beachcombing. There are two golf courses within close proximity (3-minute drive and 5-minute drive respectively), with both boasting interesting scenery of dunes and the area's long Atlantic coastline.

For a fun daytrip, venture north to the beautiful lake known as Etang d'Aureilhan (58-minute drive) which is almost as rich in history as it is in beauty. It is no wonder the lake has long attracted the world's rich and famous. The stunning Château Woosack can be found on the lake's banks. Built in 1911 for Hugh Grosvenor, 2nd Duke of Westminster, this lakeside manor was designed by architects Detmar Blow and Fernand Billery to look like the Tudor style home of Rudyard Kipling built by Cecil Rhodes in South Africa. The home has welcomed guests including Coco Chanel, Charlie Chaplin, Salvador Dali, and even Winston Churchill, who created approximately 20 paintings on the banks of Lake Aureilhan. Don't forget to take a stroll along the Promenade Fleurie, a lovely walk through wildflowers, shrubs and ornamental gardens along the edge of the lake.

For those who fancy a more urban and cosmopolitan day trip, the beautiful Basque centres of Bayonne and Biarritz (60-minute drive) are well within reach.
