Overview

Welcome to Le Mas Du Bonheur, a stunning five-bedroom farmhouse situated just outside the charming town of Cavaillon in Provence. This sprawling villa and grounds ensure an enchanting and revitalising retreat for up to 13 guests.

Upon entering the ground floor the space unfolds with elegant wooden furnishings in a traditional style. Connection to the terrace invites floods of warm, golden Provençal sunlight, giving the space a warm ambience. Adjacent you'll find a dining room and decorative fireplace. A large bedroom on this level includes a queen-sized bed and two single beds, as well as a shower, WC and seamless exit to the garden.

A fully-equipped kitchen comes with all the modern amenities you'll need for your stay, making sure you won't encounter any hindrance to the region's culinary inspiration whether you're tossing together a Mediterranean salad or preparing a feast for family and friends. The adjacent dining room and a seamless transition to the terrace makes this kitchen ideal for cosy meals or al fresco dining.

On the upper floor you'll find four uniquely designed rooms, each portraying its own tones and character. The first room features a French bed and en suite, as well as access to a private terrace. The second room also boasts a French bed, an even more lavish en suite, and access to a terrace with scenic views. The third room continues the theme, featuring a French bed, shower/WC, and another terrace. The final room, a loft-style affair set over two levels, includes a single bed, a queen-sized bed, shower/WC.

Out of doors the south-facing, sun-drenched terrace is embraced by the farmhouse itself. With a turquoise swimming pool, a comfortable pool house with barbecue, and many other terrace and garden furnishings including deck chairs and a large, shaded daybed, this beautiful space will keep everyone entertained.

From Apt to Avignon and Cavaillon to Châteauneuf-du-Pape, there are so many amazing places to explore across this part of Provence whether you are seeking history, wonderful local cuisine or vineyards. Idyllic Provençal villages are within easy reach whilst activity lovers will appreciate the golf courses alongside the many hiking and cycling trails. This is Provence at its very best with landscapes of rolling hills, lavender fields and perched villages in the distance.

Location & Local Information

Nestled in the district of Les Taillades, this charming Provençal farmhouse is a serene escape just a short distance from the heart of Cavaillon. This secluded villa a world unto itself, but that doesn't mean it lacks in convenient amenities and attractions. Cavaillon itself is a vibrant town at the foot of the Luberon mountains, with no shortage of shops, restaurants, cafes, local bakeries and supermarkets.

The region is rich with wonderful sights and activities. The Fontaine-de-Vaucluse (45-minute drive) is a stunning and mysterious spring feeding the river Sorgue. In the 1950s, famous subaqueous explorer Jacques Yves Cousteau explored its depths with a submersible but could not find the bottom.

In Roussillon (30-minute drive) you'll find one of France's most beautiful villages where houses in shades of ochre perch upon a Provençal ridge and offer a bevy of boutique shops, art galleries and cafes. The village is an adventure in itself, but hiking the trail to the nearby canyon known as Le Sentier des Ogres reveals an almost Martian landscape under the ever-azure sky.

But a visit to this part of Provence would not be complete without a visit to L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue (20-minute drive), the "island city", whose beautiful mix of flea markets, art galleries, antique dealers, cafes and restaurants are surrounded by the river Sorgue. For those looking to explore a little farther afield, the Provençal centres of Avignon (45-minute drive), Aix-en-Provence (55-minute drive), and Arles (55-minute drive), are all within touching distance of a day trip.
