

Cabane Bleu Sarcelle

Region: Aquitaine Sleeps: 4

Overview

Tucked away in Landes National Park and close to the endless sandy beaches of southwest France's Atlantic coastline, Cabane Bleu Sarcelle is a beautiful two-bedroom lakeside abode accommodating up to four guests.

Given its verdant seclusion and proximity to a renowned beach resort and one of the Great Lakes of Landes, Cabane Bleu Sarcelle has a blend of traditional French charm and coastal allure that promises an unforgettable holiday experience.

Stepping into the living/dining area, guests are greeted by strong accents of teal and white accompanied by vaulted wooden ceilings and floods of natural light. This inviting ambiance, combined with cosy couch nook and fireplace, make the hub of the house a relaxing and rejuvenating space.

Adjacent to the living area is the fully-equipped kitchen where the teal décor which gives the home its name continues. Boasting the full bevy of modern appliances and ready access to indoor and al fresco dining settings, this kitchen is a haven for those with culinary inspiration, whether you're whipping up a quick snack or a holiday feast for family and friends.

Cabane Bleu Sarcelle has two bedrooms, each designed for restful nights and peaceful afternoon naps. The master bedroom comes complete with a queen-sized bed, while the second bedroom has twin single beds which can be separated or combined. Both rooms feature the property's calming colour scheme to create a sense of continuity throughout.

Stepping outside, the appeal of the private terrace and garden becomes even more apparent. Take a seat on the sleek terrace furnishings with a morning coffee or slip into the jacuzzi at twilight to watch as the sky fills with stars.

The local area, situated along the Atlantic coast in southwestern France, is an enticing holiday destination renowned for its pristine beaches, excellent surfing conditions, and lush pine forests. With a laid-back atmosphere, charming seaside villages, and a backdrop of picturesque dunes, Lacanau has everything to offer beach and nature lovers.

What's more, Cabane Bleu Sarcelle's proximity to Bordeaux, just over an hour drive away, allows guests to experience the best of laid-back coastal life as well as the cultural and culinary delights of the vibrant city.

Location & Local Information

Ideally situated in a quiet residential area of a seaside resort town, Cabane Bleu Sarcelle is close to an array of conveniences, including supermarket, shops, restaurants, a casino and the sandy beach (all within 10-minutes' drive).

France's long Atlantic coast features long beaches of fine sand that are ideal for sunbathing, surfing and beachcombing. The beach at Lacanau Océan is 14km long on its own and stretches as far as the eye (and the legs) can reach. The beach is famous for its surfing, indeed the break hosts a round of the World Surfing League every August.

For those with an itch to swing the clubs, there are two golf courses and a minigolf course close at hand. Even closer at hand can be found Lake Lacanau, one of the Great Lakes of Landes and a hub of water and leisure activities. Renowned for its walking trails, Landes pine forests is largest man-made woodland in Western Europe and as well as the beaches on its western shore, there is also a small island in the centre of the lake.

Despite the holiday home's serene seclusion, there are exciting opportunities for day trips if you're keen to venture further afield. The beautiful city of Bordeaux is perfect for those who hunger for a taste of French cultural and cosmopolitan life. The city was inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List for its outstanding architecture and international importance over the last 2000 years.

Similarly, the stunning peninsula of Cap Ferret is well worth a visit. The headland takes the form of a spit separating the Atlantic Ocean from Arachon Bay. The peninsula is famous for its lighthouse, upmarket resort and oysters.
