Location & Local Information

Set like a gem in the charming seaside resort of Cavtat, Villa Foreo is ideally situated to enjoy the glory of this famous coastline. The town itself offers all the essentials, including supermarkets, cafes, bars, boutique shopping, scenic locales and excellent restaurants (try out La Boheme).

Despite its small size, Cavtat is big on culture. The House of Vlaho Bukovac is very close to the villa. This superb museum is dedicated to the Croatian painter born in Cavtat in 1855. The Racic Mausoleum, also close to the villa, was built in 1921 and designed by the famed Croatian sculptor and architect Ivan Mestrovic using beautiful white stone from the island of Brac. Cavtat hosts a bustling summer festival from June to September with cultural performances, including music, dance, street performances, and more. The summer carnival takes place in early July for two days each year.

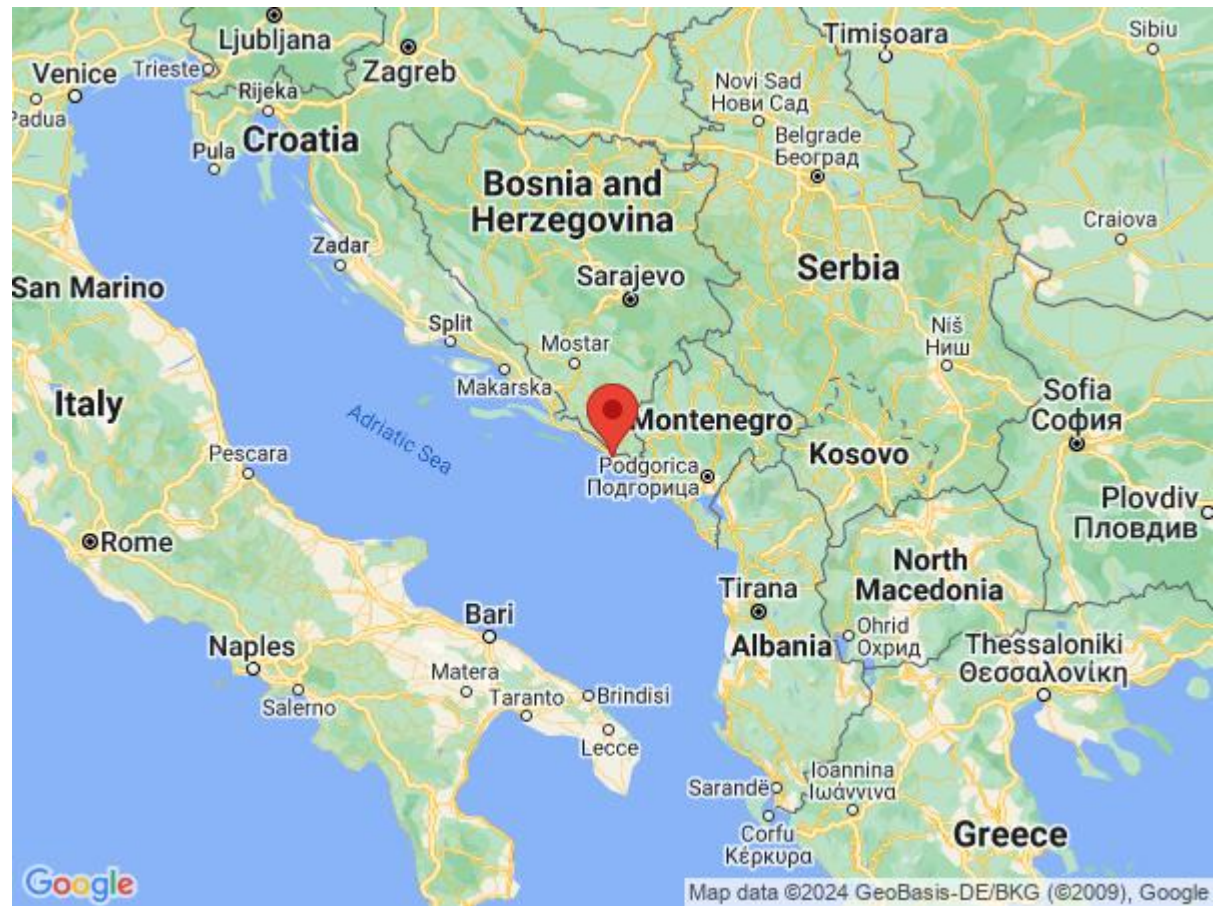

But it would be tough to venture to this spectacular coastline without paying a visit to the jewel in the crown. Dubrovnik (25-minute drive) is easily reached by car, bus (Number 10 bus leaves Cavtat hourly), or boat. Dubbed by poet Byron as “the pearl of the Adriatic”, the Dubrovnik Riviera is one of the most beautiful locales in Europe – outside the city’s medieval walls are countless spots to swim and sunbathe, while within the city walls, the Old Town’s limestone streets and Baroque churches are endless enough to get lost in.

Game of Thrones fans will recognise many parts of the city as filming locations, including Fort Lovrjenac for the Red Keep and the Rector’s Palace as the Spice King’s Qarth abode. There are even dedicated tours on offer. But don’t forget, Fort Lovrjenac regularly transforms into an outdoor theatre space in the summertime where plays by Shakespeare are regularly performed – but you’ll need to get tickets in advance!

Mlini (14-minute drive) is a small, idyllic fishing village located halfway between Cavtat and Dubrovnik with a charming harbour, a delightful pebble and sand beach, cafés and restaurants and the most stunning sunsets.
