Nestled in the heart of the dynamic and multifaceted resort of Tignes, Apartment Alpine beckons you to explore the wonders of this extraordinary destination.

Tignes welcomes a diverse and sizable audience, with approximately 2,000 residents during the off-season and a tourism-oriented capacity boasting 30,000 beds. This demographic diversity reflects the resort's commitment to inclusivity, inviting solo travellers, families, and friends to discover its surprising and innovative offerings throughout the year.

A standout feature of Tignes is its accessibility 365 days a year, with the Grande Motte glacier at an impressive height of 3,456 metres enabling summer skiing since 1967. This high-altitude paradise has become a training ground for elite athletes and a venue for major sporting events, including World Championships, European Cups, and the freestyle skiing events of the 1992 Olympic Games.

Beyond the 300 km of interconnected slopes that make it an exceptional skiing playground, Tignes offers a plethora of activities ranging from ice diving and toboggan runs to snow tubing and sledge dog rides. The town's commitment to adaptability is evident in the "1,2,3... SKI START" areas, equipped with free mats and ski lifts designed for safe skiing experiences for families and beginners.

As the sportiest ski resort, Tignes doesn't rest on its laurels but continues to captivate visitors with summer delights such as paragliding, microlight flights, tennis, golf, archery, and water sports on the lake. The resort's strategic location on the outskirts of the Vanoise National Park, the first natural park in France, ensures a pristine environment where diverse flora and fauna, from chamois to golden eagles, thrive and are protected.

With its exceptional exposure at an altitude of 2,100 metres, Tignes offers a 360° panorama of frozen lakes, glaciers, and waterfalls, creating a breathtaking backdrop for unforgettable moments. Immerse yourself in the local gastronomy, savouring blueberry pie and indulging in a variety of Savoyard cheese-based dishes.
