It forms part of the Portes du Soleil ski area, known as one of the largest ski domains in the world. As a prime skiing destination, many flock here to tackle the myriad of slopes available, including those ideal for veteran skiers and cautious beginners. Snowboarding is also popular here, and sports enthusiasts of all stripes head here for their hit of adrenaline and adventure.

Portes du Soleil spans France and Switzerland and boasts 600 kilometres of interconnected slopes and more than 200 ski lifts. This winter wonderland is great fun for the whole family.

As a skiing haven, Les Gets is naturally hugely popular during the winter months, but there's also plenty to do should you find yourself visiting in summer. Here, life is all about the great outdoors. You can try your hand at hiking, paragliding, mountain biking, ice skating and golf, amongst others. Those who adore nature or are blessed with adventurous spirits will find plenty to keep them occupied.

For those seeking something gentler, Les Gets is steeped in Savoyard charm thanks to its villages brimming with wooden chalets, delightfully quaint streets, and beautiful boutiques. Despite an influx of visitors, the village has retained a sense of authenticity whilst accommodating travellers. Depending on your time of travel, you can witness events and festivals that flaunt the culture and traditions of the local people, including music festivals, food stalls and dances.

The area is also popular for its apres-Ski and nightlife scene, with a range of bars, restaurants and cafes available. The night scene is relaxed and laid-back, but there's also plentiful entertainment and live music.

Les Gets is especially known for its family-friendly reputation. It's even been awarded the Famille Plus label, which alludes to its commitment to ensuring that its resorts are kitted out for children. With a range of ski schools nearby, you needn't worry if you're not an experienced skier. You can become well acquainted with the equipment needed and the right approach to life on the snow.

The food of the region must be sampled. Delicacies include fondue, sausages, raclette and tartiflette.

What we love

- This was heaven on earth. We spent Christmas here as a family and couldn't have had a better time. We woke up to snow every day and had delicious dinners. We spent time playing board games, relaxing by the fire, out in the hot tub and down in the cinema. There was something for everyone here and so much space.
- Looking out at the mountains while sitting in the hot tub with a glass of champagne was truly something special forme.
- I'll never forget this place. It's left a mark on my heart. It felt like a home away from home.
