

Casa Padronale - Borgo Egnazia

Region: Borgo Egnazia Sleeps: 14

Overview

Situated in the stunning Borgo Egnazia, an opulent and purpose-built village in the enchanting heart of Puglia, Italy, Casa Padronale is a delightful 7-bedroom villa that epitomizes the essence of comfort and Italian charm. Accommodating up to 14 guests, Casa Padronale enjoys Borgo Egnazia's unrivalled sense of magic and glamour, including a Michelin-starred restaurant, four pools, three bars, two private beaches, and a spa.

Architect Pino Brescia's construction of a traditional Puglian 'borgo' – or fortified village – is a symphony of golden tufa limestone accented by vivid bougainvillaea. Egnazia boasts a masseria, paved streets and arcades, a church, a central piazza, and several stone cottages and villas.

Stepping into Casa Padronale, spread over three storeys, a spacious living room of plush sofas, bookcases, accent armchairs, an audio system, and a large stone fireplace greets guests. The ground floor also boasts a fully equipped kitchen where culinary enthusiasts can toss together a Mediterranean salad or prepare a holiday feast for family and friends. An adjacent studio decorated with ceramics of Grottaglie and fabric paintings made by local artisans also boasts a guest bathroom made of Ostuni stone.

Descending to the lower ground floor reveals your own furnished tavern with a games/dining table, bar corner, and direct access to the garden and swimming pool. The lower ground floor also features a home cinema set-up, including a comfortable seating area and cinema screen. Bordering this fantastic entertainment area are three bedrooms with double beds, luxury linens, and ensuite bathrooms of Ostuni stone.

Ascending to the first floor reveals four more bedrooms. Two master bedrooms boast king-sized beds, canopies of soft gauze, and opulent ensuite bathrooms. Two further bedrooms with double beds and ensuite bathrooms complete the level.

One of Casa Padronale's most enchanting features is its picturesque outdoor spaces, including a panoramic terrace, Mediterranean garden, gazebo with an al fresco dining setting, and an expansive private swimming pool surrounded by sun loungers - an ideal spot for sipping a glass of local wine as the sun sets in a blaze of colours.

Beyond Casa Padronale, guests have access to the exclusive amenities of Borgo Egnazia, including a world-class spa, a championship golf course, and various dining options. Your stay in this charming villa promises an unforgettable escape into the heart of Puglia's beauty and Egnazia's renowned hospitality.

Location & Local Information

Set serenely near the seaside town of Savelletri on Puglia's Adriatic coastline, Egnazia is tucked between the ruins of an ancient Roman settlement (from which it takes its name) and the magnificent San Domenico championship golf course.

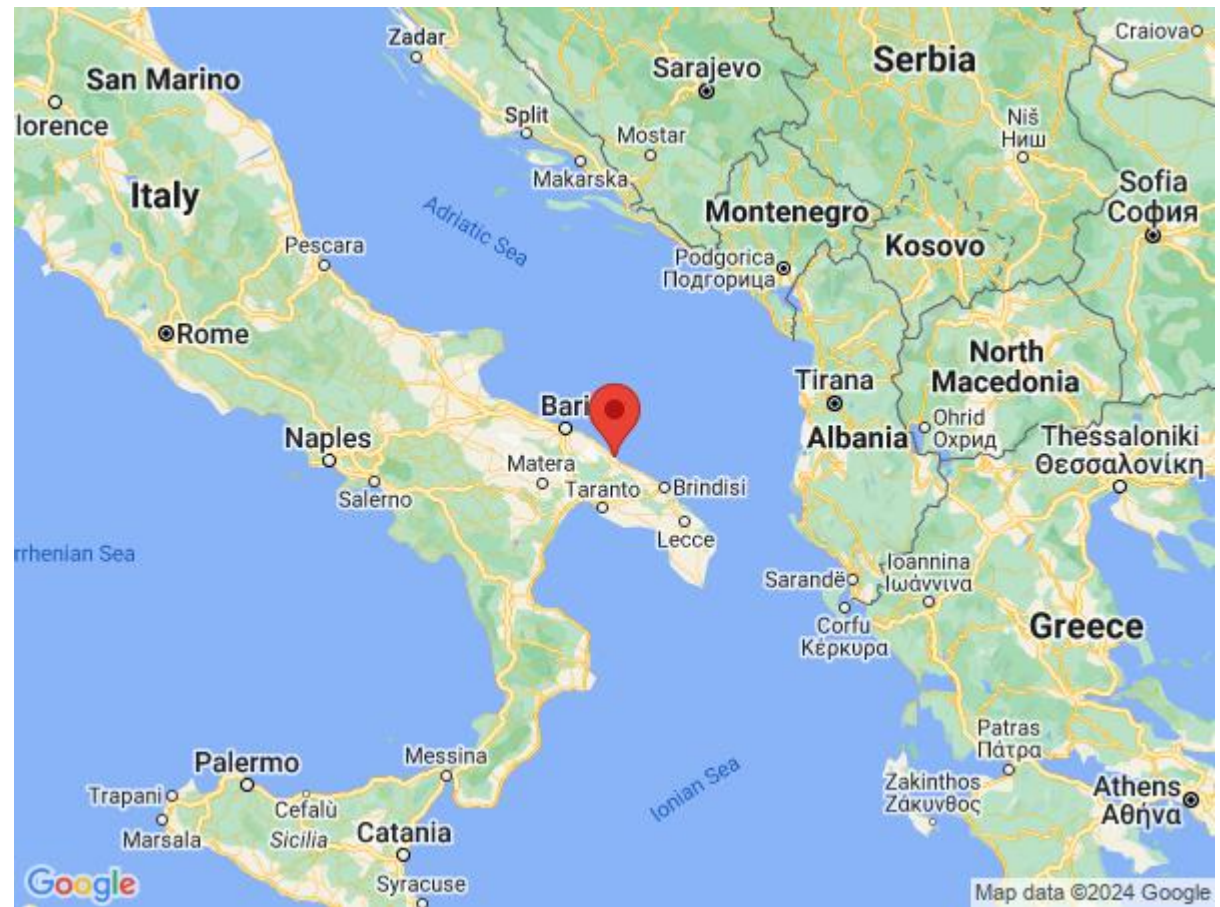

Of course, Puglia is renowned for its stunning sea and warm, white-sand beaches. And Egnazia boasts two private beaches, one sandy, one pebbly. Stroll through the golf course to the sea or take a free shuttle bus to a secluded, rocky cove, great for swimming. The Cala Masciola Beach Club also has a restaurant and bar to keep you going between dives in the sea.

Egnazia also boasts four stunning pools (in addition to the private pool in Casa Padronale). Dive into a different pool daily, drink an aperitif at a different bar every afternoon, and dine at a different gourmet restaurant every evening.

Despite many amenities that encourage guests to relax, there are also plenty of options for staying active. Not including the pools and private beaches, the sprawling golf course, tennis courts, and the scenic local surrounds are easily explored on foot or bicycle.

What we love

- The Egnazia spa and Roman baths are the epitome of relaxation and rejuvenation. Treat yourself to an olive oil massage!
- Egnazia's private beaches, one sandy and one pebbly, are easily accessible via a walk across the golf course. Take the complimentary shuttle, or, better yet, take Casa Padronale's private Fiat 500 Spiaggina (vintage open car converted to electric).
- Perhaps our favourite thing about Casa Padronale and Borgo Egnazia, in general, is that everything is provided on-site.
