

Chalet Maison Perce Neige

Region: Meribel Sleeps: 14

Overview

Nestled just a few minutes stroll from the Doron slope and the bustling centre's shops, Chalet Maison Perce Neige stands as the epitome of prestige in Méribel. This luxurious haven is undeniably the crown jewel of the valley, boasting an exterior that mirrors its opulence. The authentic architecture harmoniously blends wood and traditional stones, imparting a rustic charm that immediately captivates. However, the expansive terrace truly sets this stylish chalet apart, offering unparalleled views of the slalom World Cup track – a front-row seat to cheer on skiing champions.

Stepping through the thick walls of this prestigious chalet reveals a warm and intimate ambience. The interior, adorned with wooden accents, is further enhanced by scattered furs on the generously sized armchairs surrounding the fireplace. Each carefully chosen decorative element serves as a reminder of the mountainous retreat you find yourself in.

Chalet Maison Perce Neige's sheer size and opulence are evident in its nine beautiful bedrooms, comfortably accommodating up to 14 people. Here, guests can enjoy a level of service akin to the finest hotels, with a dedicated butler overseeing the staff and meal service, a diligent housekeeper maintaining order and cleanliness, and a skilled chef ready to cater to your culinary desires in the expansive, fully equipped kitchen.

After exhilarating days on the slopes – courtesy of the largest ski area in the world – surrender to the allure of the magnificent wellness area. An inviting swimming pool with counter-current swimming, a soothing sauna, and a spacious hammam await, promising relaxation for the privileged occupants of this prestigious chalet.

As the sun sets on your day of adventure, Chalet Maison Perce Neige ensures your evening is equally enchanting with amenities like a ski locker, shoe warmers, a wood fireplace, a safe, garage, and board games. The multimedia offerings include Apple TV, foreign channels, a decoder, and a DVD/Blu-ray player. Home appliances cater to your culinary needs with a fondue machine, a raclette machine, electric and Nespresso coffee makers, and a refrigerated wine cellar. Additionally, upon request, high chairs and baby cots can be provided for the utmost convenience. Your every need is anticipated, ensuring that Chalet Maison Perce Neige is not just a holiday residence but a destination where luxury and comfort intertwine seamlessly.

For those seeking a winter sports holiday like no other, Chalet Maison Perce

Neige has it all. From its captivating architecture and tasteful décor to the high-end amenities and exceptional services, every element is meticulously curated to ensure a truly luxurious experience.

Location & Local Information

Chalet Maison Perce Neige, perched in the prestigious Méribel valley, finds itself in the heart of the world-renowned Three Valleys – a sprawling ski area shared with Courchevel and Belleville, including Val Thorens, Les Menuires, and Saint-Martin-de-Belleville. This vast winter wonderland boasts the title of the largest ski area globally, with elevations ranging from 1100m to an exhilarating 3200m. State-of-the-art ski lifts traverse the landscape, providing seamless access to unparalleled skiing experiences and catering to the desires of free riders who revel in exceptional snow quality on and off the slopes.

As winter fades into the embrace of summer, Méribel transforms into an expansive playground. Whether on land, with hiking, horse riding, mountain biking, or golf; in the air, through paragliding or scenic flights from the Altiport; or in the water, with activities at the Méribel Olympic Park or white-water adventures in nearby rivers – the options are as diverse as the landscape itself. Families gather around La Chaudanne's expansive Front de Neige, while revellers gravitate towards the festive Rond-Point des Pistes and high-altitude terraces, including the famed Folie Douce.

Exceptional infrastructure, such as the Olympic Park with its ice rink, swimming pool, gym, spa, and game library, alongside cutting-edge ski lifts, solidify Méribel's status as one of the world's premier ski destinations. Méribel Center, the primary village, sprawled on the eastern flank, serves as the nexus of accommodations, shops, and activities. The bustling Route de la Chaudanne, from the Place de la Maison du Tourisme to La Chaudanne, is the heartbeat of this vibrant village, pulsating with shops, pubs, restaurants like La Cantine d'Alvar, hotels, and night bars such as Les Saints Pères.

The nerve centre of the ski area lies in Méribel Center and La Chaudanne, where five major state-of-the-art ski lifts converge, linking skiers to Courchevel and the Belleville Valley. Méribel village, an authentic hamlet at 1400m altitude, offers direct access to the Three Valleys through the Golf chairlift. Here, traditional wooden and stone chalets, a small chapel, and a historic bread oven add to the charm. Free shuttles effortlessly connect to Méribel's centre and La Chaudanne, ensuring seamless access to amenities, ski lessons, medical facilities, and more.

The village square, adorned with free parking and a ski pass reception, exudes a sense of community. Two restaurants, a dynamic bar with evening concerts, a sports store, a mini-market and a bakery cater to daily needs. No car is needed, as free shuttles run every 15 minutes from 7:40 a.m. to 11:30 p.m., facilitating easy exploration of Méribel, its cross-country ski trails, and the surrounding scenic walks. With the chalet located just 600 metres from the centre, 1700 metres from the nearest lift, and 300 metres from the enchanting Doron track, it beckons as a haven of peace for an unforgettable holiday in this idyllic mountain retreat.
