

Bel Air

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 6

Overview

Bel Air is an architect-designed villa set amongst the vines just a short walk from the sandy shores of Saint Tropez' famous Plage de Pampelonne.

Imagine sitting out on your elegant terrace beneath the retractable modern roof with a glass of the estate's rosé in hand. The swimming pool features a hydraulic system which allows you to alter the depth, ideal if travelling with children, and there is a outdoor dining table for family feasts al-fresco with vistas of your natural surroundings.

Inside the contemporary holiday home, the open-plan lounge is spacious with sliding doors allowing light to flood in whilst the modern kitchen is stylish and sleek with its high-end appliances and long breakfast bar. There are two pretty bedrooms downstairs, both with en suite shower rooms, and a master bedroom on the first floor with a gorgeous open-plan bathroom.

It's fantastic to be able to simply stroll down the road to the nearest beach, the northern end of Plage de Pampelonne where you will find summer beachside clubs with restaurants, sun-loungers and bars (book ahead) alongside seasonal watersports and of course the glistening Mediterranean.

Within a 4km drive you could be meandering around Saint-Tropez' old quarter or admiring the mega yachts in the former fishing village's impressive marina. In the other direction is the charming hilltop village of Ramatuelle, a picture-perfect spot for lunch on a restaurant terrace.

Wine-lovers should also try the wines from the vineyards of La Croix Valmer, perhaps combined with a swim in the crystal-clear sea from the idyllic Plage de Gigaro, reached within half an hour by car. Then there's the enchanting hilltop village of Grimaud, the beaches of Sainte-Maxime and the chestnut forests around La Garde-Freinet, all gems of this part of the Côte D'Azur and its hinterland.

Location & Local Information

Surrounded by vines and walking distance to Plage de Pampelonne, this stylish villa enjoys a fantastic location in the Var department, less than 4km from the heart of Saint-Tropez.

From the edge of the wine estate, stroll along the country road for around 10 minutes and you will soon reach a couple of beachside clubs with a restaurant, sun-loungers and a bar (advanced reservations necessary). Here you are at the northern end of Plage de Pampelonne, a vast sandy and iconic beach - some of the other exclusive beach clubs such as Le Club 55 and Nikki Beach are a short drive away. The beach is also home to various water based activities in the summer months – there are two seasonal watersport centres within easy reach for canoeing, kayaking, jet-ski and more.

Meanwhile, Saint-Tropez (4km) will enchant you with its medieval lanes, delightful shops and upmarket restaurants alongside the impressive marina showcasing the former fishing village's glamour and wealth. The twice-weekly market takes place at Place des Lices, a good way to experience the more authentic side of this glitzy French Riviera destination.

In the other direction, drive to the gorgeous hilltop village of Ramatuelle (8km) with its narrow lanes, bougainvillea-clad houses, inviting restaurants and stunning views of the coast below. Other wonderful villages in this part of the Côte D'Azur include historic Gassin (11km) and flower-filled Grimaud (14km) whilst Port Grimaud (10km) is an atmospheric spot on summer evenings with its colourful houses, bridges and canals.

Wine-lovers should also find the time to visit the vineyards around La Croix Valmer (16km), perhaps combined with a trip to the idyllic shores around Plage de Gigaro (18km) and the start of a magnificent coastal hiking trail towards Cap Lardier.
