

Bachelor Hall

Region: Holetown Sleeps: 10 - 14

Overview

Located on the golden shores of Alleyne's Bay, Bachelor Hall in Barbados is not just a villa; it's an opulent 3.4-acre retreat that redefines Caribbean luxury. As you step onto the property, a world of lush tropical gardens, coral-stone walls, and welcoming courtyards unfolds around you. The scent of the sea blends seamlessly with the vibrant hues of azure blue that accompany you from room to room.

This stylish two-story property boasts seven bedrooms, each a private sanctuary with modern décor and plush king beds. The ground floor houses two bedrooms, while the top floor offers five, all complete with ensuite bathrooms and spacious wardrobes. Imagine waking up to slow, peaceful mornings on intimate ocean-view patios, sipping coffee from in-room stations and wrapping yourself in luxurious bathrobes.

The pièce de résistance of this stunning abode lies in the top-level master wing, where a palatial king-size bedroom awaits, complemented by an ultra-cozy living room that opens to a walk-out oceanfront terrace. A brush-stroked domed ceiling graces the marbled master bath, while a private elevator ensures seamless escapes whenever respite calls.

The heart of Bachelor Hall beats within the expansive Pool Pavilion, a sun-soaked haven with loungers, shaded nooks, and oceanfront daybeds. Sunset cocktails and lavish feasts unfold on the top-floor dining terrace, complete with a built-in teppanyaki bar and panoramic ocean views. Need to unwind? An at-home spa, steam room, and air-conditioned gym with a Peloton Bike await!

Indoor-outdoor living is a breeze at Bachelor Hall. The Pool Pavilion is central to the villa, connecting all seven bedrooms, a spacious chef's kitchen, an air-conditioned entertainment room, and a library. At the ocean's edge, a formal alfresco dining room beckons under Moroccan-inspired ceiling art, while a formal living room and outdoor gathering area invite pre-dinner drinks and canapés.

For those who need to mix business with pleasure, a tucked-away office provides a comfortable workspace. But beware—the stunning ocean views may tempt you into frequent breaks! In every corner, from the koi ponds to the catwalk wardrobe, Bachelor Hall in Barbados exudes timeless charm, making it an irresistible choice for an unforgettable retreat.

Location & Local Information

Welcome to the epitome of Caribbean allure, where sun-kissed sands and the shimmering sea beckon—St. James, the coveted playground of the rich and famous, often hailed as the platinum coast. Nestled on the western side of the island, this enchanting parish cradles the ultra-luxurious Bachelor Hall in Barbados, an estate that embodies the very essence of opulence.

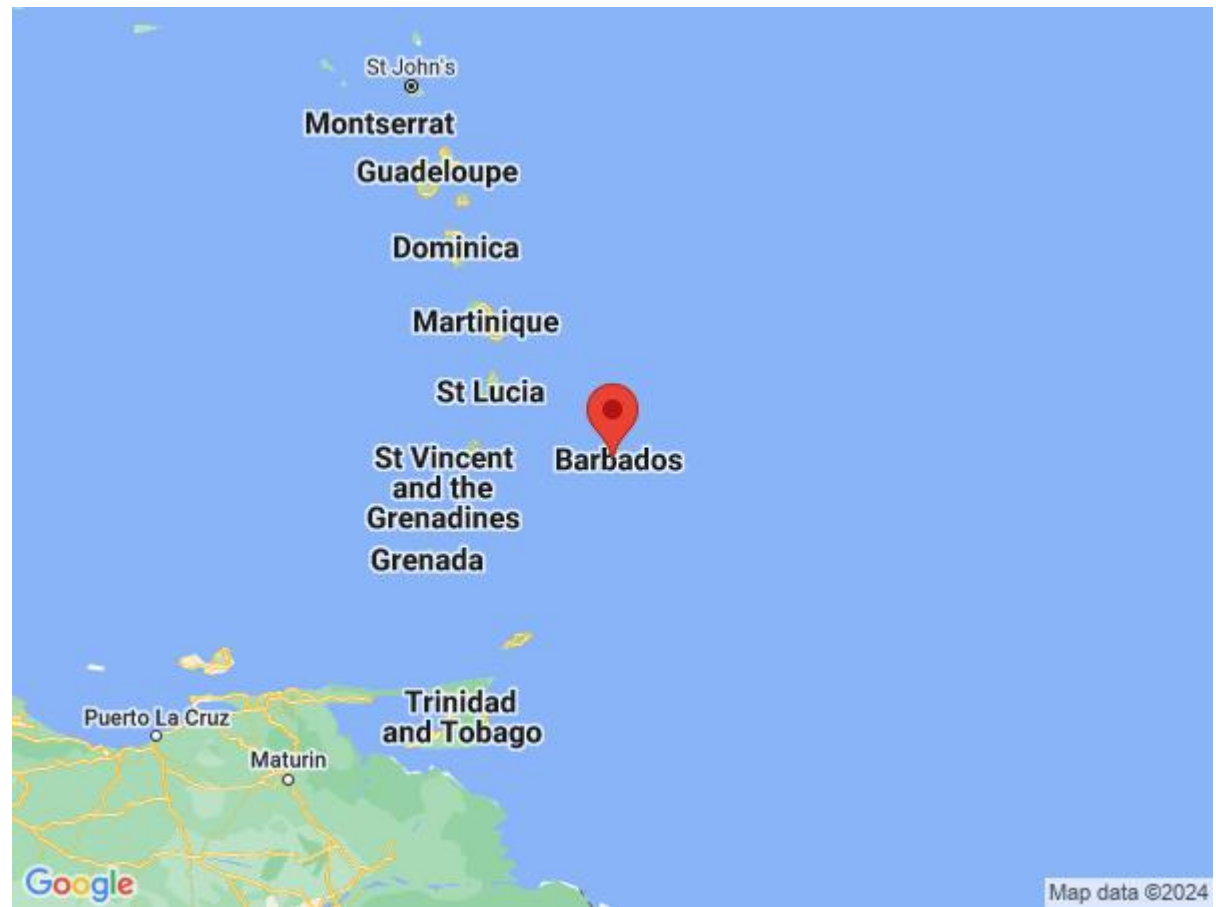

St. James is not merely a location; it's an experience, a sensory feast that immerses you in world-renowned hotels, five-star dining, and a parade of private villas and beachside mansions that redefine extravagance. The very air seems to resonate with the echoes of a historic storyline, weaving Barbadian narratives into the fabric of this coastal haven. St. James stands as a testament to the enduring relationship between England and Barbados, a connection that echoes through the centuries.

Holetown, a gem nestled within this plush paradise, features cobbled streets lined with boutiques, quaint beach bars exuding Caribbean charm, and a sinfully delicious French bakery just a leisurely stroll away from Bachelor Hall. Holetown isn't just a town; it's a vibrant tapestry of experiences waiting to unfold.

In St. James, every day is a celebration, every moment an invitation to explore the finest that Barbados has to offer. So, whether you crave the glittering nightlife or the serene embrace of the Caribbean waves, St. James unfolds as a destination where luxury and history converge, creating an experience that transcends the ordinary.
