

Villa Malachi

Region: Lefkada Sleeps: 7

Overview

Nestled in the charming village of Ayía Varvára, Villa Malachi beckons with a promise of an idyllic retreat. The air-conditioned haven, boasting a private pool and commanding mountain views, invites guests to indulge in a seamless blend of luxury and tranquillity. As you step onto the villa's balcony, a panorama of the city unfolds beneath, creating a picturesque backdrop for your stay. The location, mere kilometres from the historic Fortress of Santa Mavra and Sikelianou Square, ensures a harmonious balance between serenity and accessibility.

Villa Malachi stands as a testament to refined living, offering three bedrooms adorned with tasteful furnishings. The living room, bathed in natural light, exudes warmth, inviting guests to unwind in its embrace. A flat-screen TV provides entertainment, while the fully equipped kitchen, complete with an oven and toaster, caters to culinary desires. Two bathrooms, featuring a bath or shower, offer a touch of convenience to your stay.

The allure of the villa extends beyond its interiors, with a terrace that offers sweeping sea views, and a visual symphony that enhances the overall experience. The patio, adorned with outdoor furniture, becomes an oasis of relaxation where one can bask in the sun-kissed glow or savour the poolside tranquillity. Notably, the villa is designed to be non-smoking and soundproof, ensuring an atmosphere of serenity at all times.

For the more adventurous souls, Villa Malachi offers complimentary use of bicycles, beckoning guests to explore the surrounding area - or why not immerse yourself in the local culture with a visit to the nearby Phonograph Museum, a mere 5.6 kilometres away from the villa. Agiou Georgiou Square, a cultural hub, is also within easy reach at 5.7 kilometres away.
